Garden fair to aid funds

A SUMMER garden fair is being held in Great Wyrley this weekend.

Great Wyrley Community Support Unit is hosting the fair at its headquarters on Walsall Road from 11am-3pm on Saturday (August 6).

Activities include tombola, bouncy castle, face painting, pick a straw and pick a bottle.

Admission is free and all the proceeds will go to the unit's comforts fund.

Club mascot unveils store

A NEW Asda store was opened in Cannock this week by Hednesford Town mascot Pitman Pete.

The Lichfield Road store, formerly Netto, was opened on Tuesday. Asda invested £500,000 into the project and has created a dozen jobs.

Mum's the word as new schoolwear store opens

A MUM to be who is embarking upon her first business venture in Rugeley is already proving to be top of the class.

Candice Myers is one of three partners in Just School Wear, which opened in Bow Street on Monday (August 1).

The company will be the first in the area to provide uniforms sporting the new logos for the Fair Oak and Hagley Park Academies. Candice, who is expecting her first child today (Thursday August 4) said: "We realised there was a gap in the local market and wanted to provide a place which offers good quality uniforms to local families and schools at an efficient rate.

"The reaction so far has been great and we have already taken a lot of orders." The company offers a bespoke website to each of the schools they take on to relieve admin pressure and ensure all children are fully kitted out in time for the new term.

All orders placed before Saturday will receive a free entry into a prize draw to win £100 of WH Smith vouchers. Just School Wear also accepts school uniform vouchers.

ANGER AS TREE ORDER 'IGNORED'

How the junction looked with the trees in place

Trees have been felled to make way for the new island

AN ANGRY resident claims a tree preservation order in place on land in Hednesford was flouted after documents "disappeared" off council systems for three years.

The man, who didn't wish to be named, says he has proof that in November 2003 the Tree Preservation Order (TPO) was placed on the land situated on the corner of Cannock Road and Stafford Lane.

But back in March, site owners Hightowns Estates Ltd, cut down more than 20 trees after being given the go-ahead by Cannock Chase District Council.

The authority confirmed to the developers that was no order in place and no files had been logged on their system since 2009.

The resident, whose home overlooks the land, said he was disgusted that the trees were removed despite the order being active.

"This land has been untouched for 40 years and I just can't understand why the owners have chosen to do this now and why they have been allowed to get away with it," he said.

"For such an important council document to disappear is disgraceful, it was lucky I had copies but it does make me very worried to think what else the owners will be allowed to get away with in the future."

Despite claiming there was no order in place two months ago the resident, who is required to received documentation because his property lies adjacent to the land in question, received a letter from the council telling him the TPO had been revoked and was no longer valid.

The Chronicle has also been shown the relevant documentation.

"Why would they revoke an order if they didn't have it on their file," he said.

"It is all very convenient to withdraw the order now but that still doesn't disguise the fact when the trees were hacked down the TPO was still in place.

"No wonder people lose their faith in the local system when things as important as this get overlooked." Although all of the trees were destroyed almost five months ago the debris still remains on the site and new foliage has started to grow back.

Councillor John Burnett for the Hednesford South Ward said: "Since the resident brought this to my attention I have been trying to establish what has happened through the council but my attempts have been met with a smokescreen.

"I was told consistently the protection order was not recorded and the blame was placed on an officer who left the council two years ago.

Damage

Official documentation to the resident states that under a preservation order if a tree is destroyed or damaged those responsible could be fined up to £20,000 and in most circumstances new trees would need to be replanted.

Only if detailed planning permission is obtained would this be overruled for work to commence. A council spokesman said: "We are aware of the incident with this tree preservation order and are urgently looking into exactly what happened."

Funding boost for workshop

EXTRA funding has been made available for this year's summer workshop at Cannock's Prince of Wales theatre.

Ambient Night Productions have bagged the support of the Melanie Till Memorial fund for this year's Doctor Dolittle show.

This now means the team can offer five discounted places to children in the local area, reducing their two week fee from £120 to £60.

Bryan and Anne Till set up the fund in memory of their daughter Melanie who was killed in a road accident two and a half years ago.

Artistic director of Ambient Night Productions Adam Seager said: "It was evident from talking with Bryan that we both have the same goals for what we want to provide in the local area.

Support

"It has always been my aim to provide children in the local area with good quality theatre training in an environment where creativity can thrive.

"Bryan's aim has been to find activities to support using the memorial fund – working together has created such a fantastic opportunity to a wider range of children in the area, which is the reason for doing what we do."

The workshop will run from Monday August 15 to Friday August 26 with a final performance on Saturday 27.

During the two weeks the children will rehearse the show, which is filled with singing, dancing and acting.

Auditions for lead roles are being held at the theatre this Saturday (August 6), from 10am.

For more information about one of the sponsored places contact Sandra Conroy on 01543 578762. Regular spaces are also still available.

Hoard items will now go stateside

THE STAFFORDSHIRE Hoard is being exhibited just four miles from where the ancient gold was discovered – with the full house signs already up at Lichfield Cathedral.

The largest collection of Anglo-Saxon gold ever was found in a farmer's field in Hammerwich, and went on display at the cathedral last Saturday (July 30).

Items from the treasure, discovered by Terry Herbert, will be on show in the Cathedral Chapter House until August 21 – and the three-week tour will be visited by more than 14,000 people, Canon Pete Wilcox, Chancellor of Lichfield Cathedral, said: "We are thrilled that so many people are coming to Lichfield Cathedral to experience the Staffordshire Hoard first hand this summer.

"We are very grateful to everyone involved for making this exciting exhibition a reality for the city of Lichfield."

The touring exhibition will include a golden folded cross, a pectoral cross and a biblical inscription in Latin on a strip of gold.

The Hoard has already been on show at Stafford's Shire Hall Gallery. It will go onto Tamworth Castle to be displayed from August 27 to September 18.

Meanwhile, more than 100 of the gold and silver Hoard treasures are to go on show in the Unites States.

The National Geographic Museum in Washington DC will stage an exhibition called Anglo-Saxon Hoard: Gold from England's Dark Ages from October 29 to March 4.

Grieving family in plea for housing

THE family of a Burntwood woman who died with her boyfriend in a road accident last month are pleading with a housing association to allow her children to continue to be able to live at their home.

Joanne Beardsmore, aged 35, and Tony Malpass, 29, died on June 17 when their Kia Rio was in collision with a lorry on the A5.

Joanne's mother Pat Williams, of Baker Street, Chasetown, has been looking after her grandchildren Josh, aged 15, and Rhiannon, 11, since the accident.

Tenancy

She said that the children's uncle Michael Beardsmore was prepared to swap his tenancy in Shelfield, Walsall, to take over Joanne and Tony's home in Chasetown.

Mrs Williams said that they had approached Bromford Living about Michael taking on the house.

She said: "Unfortunately Bromford Living have now sent me a notice to say I must give up the tenancy so that it can be re-allocated."

Bromford Living's head of neighbourhoods for Staffordshire Julie Walker said: "We appreciate this is a very difficult time for the family and we have offered our support in every way we can. We will continue to work with the family."

A cracking competition to locate Wallace and Gromit

CHILDREN in Hednesford can have a Grand Day Out as they hunt for Wallace & Gromit in shop windows.

Traders in the town are hiding the cuddly characters and children who spot the toys can win a host of prizes.

Youngsters need to go into The Candy Stall in Station Road to fill in a form saying where they found the popular duo .

David Wisehall from Hednesford Town Community, who has organised the hunt, said: "Everyone seems to be getting really into it. Virtually every shop in Hednesford will have them in their window at some point." Anyone who spots Wallace and Gromit should report to Natasha Jahn at The Candy Stall, fill in a form saying when and where they saw them, and then put it in the competition postbox.

Successful entries will be entered into a prize draw which will take place by the town clock at 12pm on September 3. All prize winners will be entered into the grand draw to become Wallace & Gromit Hide and Seek Champions.

Prizes are being donated by residents and traders, but more prizes are being sought. Anyone wishing to donate a prize can contact Mr Wisehall on 01543 425060 or visit www.ourhtc.btck.co.uk

A sweet success for young students

PUPILS at a Heath Hayes school have been busy baking cakes to aid Crimestoppers.

Nine-year-olds Elena Richards and Kelli Powell raised nearly £60 for the charity through their efforts. The Gorsemoor Primary School classmates sold the cakes on July 22.

They were helped by fellow Year four pupils Lilly Jones, Kyle Horton, Luke Robert and Olivia Milward.

The money will be used by the Staffordshire Crimestoppers committee to continue the work of promoting the charity's 0800 555111 telephone number and website www.crimestoppers-uk.org.

Both Elena and Kelli did a presentation on Fearless', the element of Crimestoppers specifically targeted at the younger generation.

Class teacher Sally Price said: "Elena has done a wonderful job in raising awareness of Crimestoppers and Fearless to fellow students." Head Paul Bennett, added: "I'm very proud of what the girls – and their friends – have achieved. It just shows what determination can produce."

Business is booming for firm which shows its metal

Jeremy Butterworth

A NEW business in Cannock launched less than a year ago is booming with full order books.

Jeremy Butterworth started stainless steel fabrications business First Impressions in Union Street, Bridgtown last autumn. He also runs JN Architectural in Heath Hayes which fits the steel products First Impressions manufacture. Both businesses employ three people but Mr Butterworth said that he hoped to take on more as they grew.

The company is currently completing a hi-tech balustrade and glass bridge for a new sixth form college in Telford, and also has a growing list of McDonald's restaurants that use its stainless steel polishing service.

First Impressions has already produced stainless steel balustrades for Covent Garden in London and done work on a house being built for a millionaire.

"We're enjoying an exceptional first year, built on a philosophy of quality work, with the kind of turnaround which regularly sees us completing contracts ahead of schedule," said Mr Butterworth, a 32-year-old, who is married with four children.

"A growing number of companies like ours are demonstrating that they can emerge from the recession and be competitive enough to be in demand," he added. "We are still a small business but we are getting bigger. Our order books totalled £10,000 for July," added Mr Butterworth.

Mr Butterworth said that he had worked in steel manufacturing for several years before deciding to try and set up on his own business. He said he was proving that new businesses could do well despite the current tough economic times faced across the country.

Visitors flock to station open day

Open day fun for, l to r: Kyle Bate, aged four, Green Watch manager Russ Brown, crew manager Wes Southall and Colby Griffiths, six

MORE than 2,500 people visited Cannock's new £4.6 million fire station when it staged a community fun day.

The event provided an opportunity for people to look around the station in Old Hednesford Road and meet firefighters.

Watch manager Russ Brown said the event had been a great success and visitors had seen the fire engines go out several times to deal with incidents.

People were able to see displays of firefighting equipment and vehicles in the station yard. Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service mascot Welephant also put in an appearance to entertain youngsters. Staffordshire Search and Rescue Team, the police and ambulance service also took part.

Rugeley firefighters put on a road safety display and accident rescue simulation and children were able to follow a guide through the smoke-filled fire house in a simulation of what it is like in a fire.

The Cycle Shack from Heath Hayes also supported the event and invited firefighters and visitors to take part in a sponsored exercise bike marathon to raise funds for the Firefighters' Charity.

Bank backs awards plan

CHARITIES, communities and organisations could feel the force of a cash injection thanks to a bank's community project.

NatWest has launched its Community Force programme which gives three organisations in the area the chance to get a £6,000 community award.

Projects in Cannock and Rugeley would fall under the Stafford and Shropshire area for the funding and an application form can be filled out online, before an online public vote decides the winners.

Brendan O'Reilly, local chief executive officer for NatWest in Stafford and Shropshire, said: "It is really important to me that the bank is giving the community the chance to vote for the award winners."

The initiative is aimed at helping charities, organisations and groups raise awareness of their work and attract volunteers.

To apply, visit www.natwest.com/communityforce or www.rbs.co.uk/communityforce before September 4.

Wellies a winner at local pub

A PUB in Cannock has been bombarded with wellington boots following the launch of its project welly charity campaign.

Tumbledown Farm, on Four Crosses Lane, called on punters to donate their old children's wellies and more than 100 pairs have been received. The boots, which have been cleaned and sanitised, have been handed to the Federation of City Farms and Community Gardens, which helps organisations get local and disadvantaged communities involved in their outdoor projects.

Tumbledown Farm's general manager Alan Vincent said: "A big thank you to everyone who donated wellies – we're thrilled with the result." Visit www.farmgarden.org.uk for more information.

Councillors' surgeries

BURNTWOOD'S Labour councillors will be holding advice surgeries this weekend.

The district and town councillors for Chase Terrace, Chasetown and Summerfield Wards will be at Burntwood Library, at Sankey's Corner from 10-11am on Saturday.

Residents can just pop in to raise any issue or lobby their councillor over anything from buses to social services, from anti-social behaviour to parking.

New chairman at school

THE new acting chairman of governors at a Hednesford school where the head has been suspended has assured staff they aim to do the best for the children.

Robert Heath has taken over from Peter Barker who has resigned as chairman of governors at St Peter's Church of England Primary School. Head Trevor Hancock has been temporarily removed from his post and replaced by his deputy Robbie Walker.

Mr Barker had written to parents of the school's 465 pupils confirming an investigation into "a number of issues" has been launched. But since sending the letter on July 19, Mr Barker has resigned. He says it is for personal reasons.

Caretaker gets £3k damages

A CARETAKER from Norton Canes has received £3,000 in damages after he passed out and broke his ribs in a fall from a ladder when he was exposed to fumes at work in Walsall.

Desmond Groom, 44, struck his side on a sink after starting to use a new cleaning product supplied by his employers Burrowes Street Tenant Management Organisation (TMO) Ltd.

When Mr Groom arrived at work he found a note telling him to use the substance, but there were no instructions on how to use it.

His trade union, Unite, instructed Thompsons Solicitors to pursue a claim for compensation. They argued the TMO should have risk assessed the use of the product. TMO settled the claim out of court for £3,000.

Chance to air your concerns

A POLICE community meeting for Hednesford will be held on Monday.

Residents are invited to discuss their concerns at the pavilion in Hednesford Park, Rugeley Road, from 11am.

The search goes on to find a legend among Chase children

THE SEARCH to find talented children who can show off their hidden genius is continuing.

The Chronicle and Cannock Chase Council have joined forces to find 15 youngsters from across the district who excel in a particular field and want to demonstrate their skills to others.

The 'Launch a Legend' project is open to children aged five-to-11-years-old and could feature budding chefs, guitar heroes, dancing divas, or even freestyle footballers.

Children selected will each be professionally filmed and featured on Cannock Chase District Council's The Good Life website as well as on You Tube.

Lisa Shephard, from the council's Community Wellbeing and Arts department, said: "Launch a Legend is a way to inspire our children to take up hobbies and passions outside school that don't have to cost the earth. To take a look at where your child may be featured, visit www.thegoodlife.uk.net which promotes fun ways to family health and is shared across the district and schools."

To register a child's talent, parents or carers are asked to simply go onto www.thegoodlife.uk.net and follow the links for Launching A Legend.

You'll need to complete an online form and write no more than 100 words stating why your child should be featured.

Participating children must be aged five-to 11-years-old and live in the district of Cannock Chase.

They must undertake a hobby which they practise often. Only pocket money passions will be considered.

The children must be happy to be filmed, and must have parent/carer consent. They must be available to be filmed between August 15 and 22 and be happy to be featured in The Chronicle.

All entrants will be notified on August 8 via email. Successful applicants will be contacted to co-ordinate a suitable time and place to be filmed.

The project needs to show an array of activities, skills and different ages, and will represent children from across the district. These will be selected by a panel of individuals, representing the partners involved, namely Cannock Chase Council Community Wellbeing Arts, The Chronicle and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust and Greenwood Studios.

Staff work tirelessly to ensure coveted awards are retained

Flying the flag for our district's green spaces

IT WAS a day of celebration across Cannock Chase as Green Flags were raised at four of the district's green spaces.

Park workers, community groups, local councillors and park visitors took part in flag-raising events at Cannock Park, Castle Ring in Castle Wood, Ravenhill Park in Brereton and Elmore Park in Rugeley.

Each of the four green spaces was awarded the coveted Green Flag award, the national benchmark for quality green spaces, last week. Each of the sites stood out after impressing the judges with their excellent use of green space, well-maintained facilities and high standards of safety and security.

All four green spaces retained the Green Flag awards they won last year.

Facilities

Councillor Janos Toth, Cannock Chase Council deputy leader with responsibility for the environment portfolio, said: "The council manages more than 1,000 hectares of parks and green spaces right across the district – that's the size of about 1,600 football pitches.

"Council employees who look after the parks work very hard throughout the year to ensure facilities are maintained to a high standard.

"We don't take previous Green Flag successes for granted and our staff work tirelessly to ensure Green Flags are retained – and their efforts have certainly been rewarded.

"I'd like to thank our employees and all the other passionate individuals and voluntary groups who have worked hard to provide these vital green spaces which help to improve the quality of life for everyone."

All four sites in the District now have the chance to receive a further award called the People's Choice Award. This is voted for by the public – log on to www.greenflagaward.org.uk to vote for your favourite.

PARKFILE

Cannock Park: The park has now been awarded the Green Flag Award for each of the last four years. Taking into account judges' comments from previous years, new play area signs have been installed, footpaths improved and the railings and gates replaced. A defective drain on the former bowling green has been fixed and a log wall installed to create a special planting area. Metal edging has also been installed to improve the appearance of the rose beds.

Castle Ring: This year was a hat-trick of Green Flag Awards for this ancient monument. Over the last 12 months an information leaflet has been introduced for the site which details the historical significance of this former Iron Age hill fort site. The site entrance car park has been improved and all bollards and wooden fixtures cleaned and stained. A bench has been placed near to the car park and on the top of the ridge line offering a spectacular view of the Chase. Plans are being made to improve the interpretation of the site with new interpretation boards during 2011.

Ravenhill Park: This year saw Ravenhill Park win its third Green Flag Award in a row. Improvements carried out over the last 12 months include repainting benches and bollards, improving summer bedding areas, wildflower areas and ensuring more areas are maintained for the benefit of wildlife. A new fence/gates and kissing gate was also put in on the Armitage Road side of the park. The children's play area paddling pool also received its annual refurbishment.

Elmore Park: A second-year win for this very popular park just outside Rugeley town centre. Improvement works over the last 12 months include the widening and installation of some new paths. More trees were planted and a Tree Trail guide is been produced to enable guided walks around the park. Further improvements were made to the play area, with two new pieces of equipment added. A derelict water feature was converted into a play area and the popular refreshments kiosk re-opened for the summer.

Car park litter lout is told to pay out £765

A CANNOCK litterbug who threw a cigarette end on to a car park will have to pay out £765 following a council prosecution.

Brian William Grant of Benion Road, Cannock, was seen throwing the rolled-up cigarette on to the McDonald's car park, in Church Road, by a council environmental health officer on January 14.

Grant failed to pay a fixed penalty notice for littering, leading to the Cannock Chase Council prosecution. He failed to appear at Stafford Magistrates' Court and the case was proved in his absence.

Grant was fined £350 also ordered to pay £400 in costs and a £15 victim surcharge, leaving him with a total bill of £765.

Karen Sulway, Cannock Chase Council's environmental protection manager, said Grant ignored an invitation to give his version of events to officers.

"The costs are for preparing a case for court and a solicitor to prosecute. The magistrates decided on the fine, but the offence has a maximum penalty of £2,500," she added.

Patrols

"We hope this will get the message across that we take littering seriously. We have patrols operating across the district and people can also report incidents to the council," said Mrs Sulway.

She added: "The council is committed to a cleaner, healthier and safer district and we are cracking down on all forms of littering, including cigarette ends."

"Anyone found dropping a cigarette butt can expect to receive a Fixed Penalty Notice of £75.

"Cigarette ends, followed by sweet wrappers and matchsticks, are the most commonly found items."

£4k bill for council stung by metal theft

MORE than £4,000 of damage was caused by metal thieves who ripped 40 metres of copper cabling, worth just £300, from a generator plunging a council building into darkness.

The council revealed it was investing thousands into a new system which would mean the cables will travel underground, making them more difficult to target. The housing office, in a bungalow annexe to the main council building in Beecroft Road, Cannock, has reopened after being shut since July 25.

Council spokesman Jamie Summerfield said: "We are making it a lot more secure in the wake of this theft. We are putting some of it underground to make sure it doesn't happen again."

Thieves struck shortly before 4am on July 23 morning, cutting the lock from a gate to access the generator and chopping through two 415 volt cables.

Ch Insp Carl Ratcliffe added: "This type of crime can have a significant impact on the community.

"Not only does the loss and damage cost money to put right, it causes disruption to users of the council's services and council staff."

Staffordshire has been plagued by increasing numbers of metal thefts over the past couple of years.

In Staffordshire, there were 593 metal thefts in the first six months of last year.

Special show at village hall

A DJ and a teenage singer-songwriter will line up for a show to raise money for a Staffordshire village hall.

Rich Parsons headlines the Cannock Wood & Gentleshaw's Environmental Group show at the village hall in Cannock Wood, on August 19. Tickets are £5 for adults with offers for family tickets. Call Mr Powis on 01543 674993 for details.

Authority asking for residents' views

CANNOCK Chase District Council is asking residents what the authority's priorities should be for the next 12 months.

The authority wants to know residents' views on the main agendas that were set for this financial year, 2011-12.

It also wants to know if any new ones should be included for 2012-13. People are being asked to complete an online survey where they can rank what the priorities should be in order and put forward suggestions on what the authority's main concerns and action plans should be.

In June, the council published its corporate plan which revealed the authority's four main priorities for this year and next. They are: People, Place, Prosperity and Transformation. In each priority area, a number of service aims are set out saying what the council will be focusing on.

The council released a dance DVD earlier this month to encourage more people in the district to get active.

Councillors were criticised by the Taxpayers' Alliance for spending public money on the initiative but cabinet members hit back, saying something needed to be done to encourage people to be healthier. The DVD cost £2,000 to put together, but this was partly funded by the Cannock Chase Commissioning Consortium and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust.

Residents can have their say by logging on to www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk

Asda cash row may go to the High Court

COUNCIL chiefs have warned a legal battle against supermarket chain Asda is heading for the High Court if an agreement cannot be reached.

More than £500,000 was paid by Asda to Cannock Chase District Council as part of the conditions attached to building its 24-hour store in Avon Road, Cannock, and was intended to build an artificial sports pitch at the old Cannock Stadium. But since the stadium was demolished in November 2009, Asda has been trying to claim the cash back.

Council leader George Adamson said negotiations were ongoing. And he admitted that court action was "very possible".

"I can't say too much about what is happening at the moment because of the legal implications and the possibility of a court case," he said. "We have no idea whatsoever when this will all be resolved – it is just dragging on and on.

"It is a ludicrous situation. If the previous council had spent the money when they should have, we would not be having to deal with this now."

Interest

The £562,000 sum – which has earned an extra £100,000 in interest since it was received – was paid by Asda when the store was built in 2005, as part of a Section 106 requirement to contribute to the area.

It was earmarked for an all-weather field at the old Cannock Stadium in Pye Green Road before it was knocked down.

According to the conditions, the council should have spent the money by May last year – and while Asda was initially willing to extend the time limit, it now says the stadium being demolished means the agreement is void.

Wakes is hailed a success

BURNTWOOD Town Council estimates that 9,000 people attended the Burntwood Wakes events.

The Wakes Unsigned concert on July 22 attracted around 1,000 to Burntwood Rugby Club's ground at The Sportsway to see performances by many local pop and rock bands.

The family fun day on August 23 was attended by 5,000, with 3,000 turning out at the free Burntwood Wakes Festival Proms on the Saturday evening.

Councillor Steve Taylor, chairman of the Burntwood Wakes Committee, said: "I would like to thank the organisers for all their hard work and efforts to make the events successful. We were thrilled that so many people attended all three events."

The Saturday evening concert was performed by the Staffordshire Festival Orchestra and many people went along early to enjoy a picnic.

Pupils help drought appeal

Chadsmoor Primary School pupils Corey Aston (left), aged five, and Harvey Mason, six, prepare for the schools fund raising giant cake sale for the Africa Appeal

CHILDREN and staff at a Staffordshire school have been making and selling cakes to raise money for people affected by the East African drought.

Pupils at Chadsmoor Community Infant and Nursery School brought in cakes which they sold for 10p to do their bit to help the millions of people at risk in East Africa.

In addition to continuing conflicts the region has been hit by the worst drought there in 60 years. Headteacher at the school Karen Burns said the children enjoyed the experience of raising money for people in need.

She said: "It has been very successful, the sales have made around £250 which will be given to the East Africa Crisis Appeal.

"The children sold cakes for 10p and some of the money was raised from a raffle for a bigger cake."

Jobs are created at latest 99p shop

A NEW shop will come to Cannock town centre next month, creating around 35 jobs.

The 99p Stores, will take over the vacant unit 15 inside Cannock Shopping Centre which has been left empty since the lease ran out at the home furnishing shop QS earlier this month.

Shoppers will be able to visit the new store when it opens on Saturday.

Positions are being offered in a range of roles, from customer assistants to stock replenishment officers.

Hussein Lalani, who heads 99p Stores nationwide, said: "We have gone from one-man band to national brand in just over a decade." Mr Lalani said the new store coincided with the creation of its 2,000th new job in the Midlands and he claims more than 1.5million people in the country visit the stores every week.

He added: "We researched a lot of new areas and Cannock came out ahead of a lot of other regions because we have discovered Cannock people know a bargain when they see one."

Pet service at church

CHASETOWN Methodist Church will host another pet service following requests from pet owners who have lost their companions.

Reverend Christopher Parkes will lead the service on August 14, at the Queen's Drive Church.

Last year people turned up with a variety of animals, from African snails to great danes.

This year's theme is 'choosing friends' to recognise those whose animals are more than just a pet.

Rev Parkes said: "This is an opportunity to come together, everyone will be welcome, with or without pets, and we hope to have a tremendous time giving thanks for all sorts of creatures."

For more details contact Mr Parkes on 01543 682277.

Charity night raises £3,000

A BOLLYWOOD night in Heath Hayes raised £3,000 for charity.

Narinder and Satpal Devgun organised the evening at Heath Hayes Constitutional Club. Mrs Devgun said £1,500 had been raised for both St Giles Hospice and the Midlands Air Ambulance.

Owners urged to clean up dog mess

DOG owners in Cannock are being urged by the council to pick up dog mess after the area experienced an increase in the problem.

Cannock Chase Council bosses are supporting the current National Poop Scoop Week, by carrying out extra patrols.

Councillor Janos Toth, deputy leader of the council, said: "While the majority of owners are responsible and pick up after their dog, a careless few are still giving dogs a bad name and each year we get hundreds of complaints about dog mess.

"Dog fouling in our parks, pavements and public spaces is a problem we are determined to tackle."

The council's environmental enforcement assistants are urging members of the public to report irresponsible dog owners. The council says the number of reports of dog fouling has risen over recent years.

Clarissa Baldwin, chief executive of Dogs Trust, said: "We want Poop Scoop Week to be about saying thank you and well done to the millions of well-behaved dog owners, but also to remind the irresponsible minority that their dog can't pick up after itself."

Residents can report fouling by calling 01543 462621.

MP lends support to apprentice schemes

CANNOCK Chase MP Aidan Burley is using his Help Zone to offer advice to businesses on taking on more apprentices.

He is urging local businesses and organisations to find out how to apply for assistance through the Government's new £25 million Higher Apprenticeship Fund.

The fund supports the expansion of apprenticeships up to degree equivalent in companies, particularly small and medium-sized enterprisess, where there is unmet demand for the higher level skills.

The Conservative MP said 900 people have taken up an apprenticeship in the district in the nine months to April – a take-up rate 50 per cent higher than across the country as a whole.

Believe

"The figures so far have been good, but I believe that we must do more," said Mr Burley. Youth unemployment in Cannock Chase rose under Labour to be among the highest in the West Midlands. That is why I want to use the facilities of the Help Zone to encourage those who have not yet taken the plunge."

Mr Burley added the growth in apprenticeships proved that employers recognised them to be a sound platform for long term economic prosperity. The Help Zone is in Cannock town centre.

Troops set for change in vote plan

AIDAN Burley MP has welcomed Government plans to extend voting deadlines for British troops and citizens abroad.

Ministers have published draft proposals to give overseas voters and service personnel an extra eight days to vote in elections.

The plans to extend the electoral timetable to 25 days ahead of the poll come after Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley called for a review. It means there will be extra time for postal votes to be sent and returned.

Mr Burley said: "It is quite shameful that overseas voters and many of our brave men and women serving overseas in our Armed Forces were unable to vote in the last election.

"I am glad therefore that this Government has now listened to the concerns of my constituents."

Roland Stanley, centre, and fellow members of the Cannock Stroke Club after climbing up Snowdon

Charity trek fundraiser is the icing on the cake

A CHARITY walker got a double surprise on his 70th birthday as he was given two cakes while walking up Snowdon.

Roland Stanley was walking up the highest mountain in Wales to raise money for Cannock Tuesday Stroke Club and the Stroke Association. At the peak his granddaughter presented him with a cake, only for the group to do the same when he got back down to the bottom.

Mr Stanley, whose wife Pat is chairman of the Cannock Tuesday Stroke Club, said: "It was a total surprise and really quite nice. When I got to the bottom it was a bit of a double whammy. I could have jumped on a plane and gone on holiday for my 70th but instead I walked up Snowdon. It's definitely something I'll never forget."

He walked up and down the mountain with his granddaughter, son-in-law and a worker for the Stroke Association in six hours, but admitted it was on the way down when he started struggling.

He said: "Coming down was hard; it was really rough on the knees. It must be an age thing because everyone else struggled on the way up!"

Eleven people, all connected to stroke sufferers in some way, completed the sponsored walk which raised around £1,200 in total.

Town's new car park is opened for public use

THE first new car park to be opened as part of the £50 million Hednesford Gateway development is now accessible to the public.

Developer St Modwen has provided more than 50 new car parking spaces in phase one of the development, accessed via Victoria Road.

The opening of the car park was accelerated by St. Modwen in order to provide extra parking facilities to meet the expected rise in demand for both town centre and Hednesford Park visitors during the school summer holidays.

Mark Watkins, development surveyor for St. Modwen said: "We are delighted to have delivered this new provision in time for the school holidays and would like to thank the people of Hednesford for their patience during the works to deliver this car park.

Visitor

"The spaces here are now reserved solely for public use, with contractors on the development being allocated their own parking area to ensure visitor parking is not inhibited by construction traffic."

The car park will be extended as works on phase one progress and will eventually provide a total of 170 new spaces to the town centre. Parking is free and available 24/7 at the car park to be transferred to Cannock Chase Council ownership on completion of Hednesford Gateway.

Anger at off-road bikes plan for Shoal Hill quarry

FURIOUS residents have warned that a local beauty spot could be wrecked if plans for an off-road biking park are allowed to proceed.

WOR (World of Riding) Events plans to transform parts of Shoal Hill Quarry in Huntington into a permanent home for bikers.

The company is in discussions with Stafford-based Inglewood Investments, owners of the quarry, to take permanent control of the site.It hopes to have its first meeting over the weekend of August 13 and 14. Residents and councillors are worried about the noise the scheme will generate, and fear trees at the nature spot will be damaged.

Kirk Dyke, aged 42, who lives in nearby Lupin Lane, only moved in to his house a month ago, saying the quiet surroundings attracted him to the property.

He said: "I'm not against people enjoying themselves, but I can't see how someone would allow this to happen."

Mr Dyke said he was concerned about the impact on wildlife and damage to an area of natural beauty.

Despicable

Ruth Hampsey, who lives in Buttercup Close, feared the bike park would devalue her property. She said: "I think it's despicable."

Neighbour Mandy Mason, aged 44, said: "We already have bikes going up and down the road. When you get them going up and down here, the last thing you want is to have them out the back."

Stuart Forrest, aged 28, who lives in King Cup Drive, said: "We've got an 18-month old, so we certainly don't want to be bothered by that."

Tom Follows, 51, a director at Inglewood Investments, said illegal biking currently takes place on the land – out of the firm's control – along with drinking and vandalism. He admits the bikes will cause "some noise" but the plans will mean the activities on the site are controlled.

Job boost from local butcher

A MEAT wholesale business creating up to 15 jobs and a training academy for butchers is being lined up for Cannock.

The plans are for Peter Rosa Retail centre in Walsall Road, Bridgtown.

A planning application for change of use has been submitted to Cannock Chase Council. The premises were previously used for five years as a furniture and bed retail warehouse.

The 4,680sq ft warehouse was built as three separate industrial units and owners Peter Rose Ltd of New Penkridge Road, Cannock, has put in the application and has a tenant lined up.

S Whitehouse and Company plans to employ 10 to 15 people and also wants to start up a training academy for young people wanting to become butchers.

It hopes to expand employment to 30 within two years if the scheme gets the go-ahead. The majority of the work will be preparation, boxing and storage of meat, with a third of the premises used for retail.

Riders go the whole hog at pub event

Hogparts owner Dave Greatrix, aged 51, and Darren Sault, 43, from Norton Canes

A CANNOCK pub played host to a Harley Davidson motorcycle rally.

Bikers rode in convoy from Hednesford to t he Yew Tree in Jerome Road, Norton Canes, for the Hogparts' Midsummer Bash on July 31.

The event in aid of the National Association for Bikers with a Disability (NABD) was organised licensee Carl Harrison and by Dave Greatrix from Harley Davidson specialists Hogparts in Cardigan Place, Hednesford, from where the ride started.

About 100 riders took part and Mr Harrison said that more than 500 people had come along to join in the fun.

"It is the second time we have put on the event to help charity," he added.

The free admission event also included a custom bike competition, hog roast and rock disco into the evening. There was also a tattooist at the event.

Bands the Shinkickers and White Light were also playing. A collection in aid of Help for Heroes was also organised during the afternoon. The NABD was set up in 1991 by six bikers from Stockport and Manchester to show that disabled people could ride motorcycles.

Man, 68, took his own life

A MAN who had been suspended from work after he was drunk behind the wheel of a tractor killed himself in his garden days later.

Robert Brown, aged 62, of Littleworth Road, Cannock, had no history of depression, Cannock Coroner's Court heard. He worked at Poplars Landfill Waste site in Lichfield Road, Cannock, but was suspended pending a full disciplinary hearing after he was intoxicated at work.

South Staffordshire coroner Andrew Haigh heard that on April 16, Mr Brown hanged himself from a tree in the garden of their home.

Mr Haigh recorded a verdict of suicide.

Concert for famine relief

A CONCERT is being held in Cannock this weekend to raise money for the East Africa Famine Fund. The fundraising show will feature a range of gospel singers, including international singer Elvira Duarte, at the Methodist Community Hall, in Mill Street. Saturday's concert starts at 7pm and admission is free.

Deliberate fires are tackled by crews

FIREFIGHTERS were called out to deal with a spate of fires started by youngsters in Huntington and Chase Terrace.

Cannock fire crews put out a series of deliberate fires in grass and woodland from 4 to 6pm on Friday (July 28).

There was no serious damage. Later that same night a derelict garage filled with old furniture on a Cannock estate was set alight by intruders.

The culprits forced the lock on the garage in a row at the back of Bilberry Bank, off Sycamore Green, West Chadsmoor, before starting the fire. The blaze was spotted by a resident at 10pm. Cannock firefighters spent about 20 minutes putting out the fire.

About an hour later, firefighters put out a wheelie bin blaze in Hunter Road, Cannock before it spread.

Scholars' consent for directors' boxes

CHASETOWN FC will spend some cash generated through major building projects on new directors' boxes.

The Scholars were awarded £40,000 by Lichfield District Council last year towards the provision of a multi-purpose room for community use.

Now bosses at the Church Street ground have been told part of the cash can be used on directors' boxes.

Craig Jordan, of Lichfield District Council's planning department, says it will boost facilities for Chasetown and Burntwood.

Temporary

The Chasetown project was one of a number of schemes allocated funding through a Section 106 agreement with developers.

Earlier this month, it was revealed that a temporary stand is to be put in place before the start of the new Chasetown kick off their Evo-Stik League campaign against Whitby Town.

A new £1m stand being built will not be completed until next March.

Work has begun on preparing the ground and a number of buildings on site have been relocated to make way for the construction project.

Families enjoy beach theme day

Punch & Judy man Clive Chandler with Olivia Butler, aged five, Joshua Lewis, eight and Ethan Butler, seven

A PUNCH and Judy puppet show and sandcastles were the order of the day at a beach party staged at Chasewater Country Park.

Scores of families made the most of the warm weather by heading to the attraction.

Around 250 people took part in a rage of summer themed activities and many sat down to watch the traditional Punch and Judy show.

The day was one of many themed family fun days taking part at Chasewater during the summer.

The beauty spot will also hold a "Recycle and Revamp" workshop during the holidays. These are being staged on Fridays until September 2 and egin tomorrow (August 5).

There is a circus skills fun day today (Thursday), with juggling, unicycling and crafts, and young buccaneers can enjoy a swashbuckling Pirate Day at Chasewater on August 11.

For more information on Chasewater events and to book, contact the Innovation Centre on 01543 370737.

Old Fashioned Values Pay Dividends For Cloudy2Clear

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that his approach is the key. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Some people may call the way I do things a little old-fashioned but it's amazing how a simple mix of manners, punctuality and personal service increases your business. I'm constantly taken aback by customers who are shocked that we turn up when we say we will, do the job that is required and clean up after ourselves. I'm afraid it indicates to me that there are many companies who don't and that's just not fair to the customer.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Walsall, Wolverhampton, Dudley, Cannock, Bridgnorth & Stourbridge areas and Brian is finding that his ethos is proving to be a major factor in his success. 'When I started out I just did the things that came naturally to me. I really hate being let down by tradesmen so I was determined not to let that happen to my customers. As it turns out that little bit of extra care has meant I get friends and family of people I have done work for on the phone constantly so it's not just personally satisfying but good for business too. At the end of the day it's not rocket science, is it?'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Questions on cost of parking review

A REVIEW into parking enforcement across Staffordshire will continue until the end of the year as questions are raised over the efficiency of the team responsible.

Staffordshire County Council is heavily subsidising the parking enforcement team but Councillor George Adamson, the new leader of Cannock Chase Council, admitted the service was "too costly" to continue in its current form.

The parking enforcement team was earlier cut from five to four as part of £960,000 budget cuts needed during the 2011-12 financial year.

Councillor Adamson said further job losses could not be ruled out – although he stressed that redundancies were "not being discussed" at the moment.

"The funding situation for the parking enforcement team is a ludicrous situation which we are looking to sort out over the coming months," Councillor Adamson said.

"Hopefully, we can do this without further job cuts, and we are working with Staffordshire County Council to find ways of doing this. Basically, the team is costing more than it brings in and we need to examine how to support it in the future."

A website report states the authority is willing to continue subsidising the team for as long as there is evidence that it can eventually become self-sufficient.

But it adds: "However, the Civil Parking Enforcement budget will need to be closely monitored during 2011-12 to ensure the ongoing sustainability of the service."

The news comes as it emerged 1,511 parking fines were issued in Cannock over the past three months – more than 130 fewer than the amount issued during the same period last year.

Of these, 14 per cent – or 210 – have been cancelled.

More than 130 of those were issued to disabled Blue Badge holders not displaying their badge correctly and were cancelled as it was a first offence.

Equipment faults and tickets not printing properly were among other reasons for cancelled tickets.

MP opens revamped play area

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson officially opened a new outdoor play area in Cheslyn Hay

The Village Pre-School, in Pinfold Lane, has made use of a £30,000 council education grant to transform the outdoor space into a state-of-the-art play area.

A canopy above the play area means the youngsters can play outdoors all year round.

Nursery manager Margaret Bryan said: "It comes from a £30,000 education grant fund from Staffordshire County Council.

"It means the children can go and play outdoors whatever the weather."

Tory MP Mr Williamson ad the honour of cutting the ribbon of the new play area, which includes an outdoor blackboard, a 'small house', climbing equipment, a sandpit, waterpit and a range of seats.

The nursery forms part of Cheslyn Hay Village Hall which is a community venue and private function room facility. Mrs Bryan said the nursery was looking for new additions.

For information, call 01922 410 668.

A big thank-you for all who got involved with the city's third annual book festival

LICHFIELD'S Oxfam shops led the nationwide celebrations this month as part of Oxfam's third annual book festival Bookfest.

The festival ran from July 2 to 17 with hundreds of events and promotions in Oxfam shops and bookshops across the country. Part of the proceeds from the books that have been donated to and sold in the Oxfam shops in Lichfield will go towards the DEC East Africa Crisis Appeal which has affected more than 10 million people in Kenya, Ethiopia and Somalia, where famine has been declared in two regions.

Highlights in Lichfield included a Samuel Johnson themed day, children's writing competitions judged by local author Lorraine Hellier, and the opportunity to help Lichfield buy a library for an impoverished community, through Oxfam's "Unwrapped" scheme.

Nationwide, Bookfest 2011 featured everything from author and celebrity visits, writing competitions and quizzes, to children's days, auctions and history events.

Bookfest is our way of thanking the people of Lichfield for all their support. The sale of just three books could provide 10 days worth of food rations for a family in an emergency situation so we really want to encourage the public to keep coming to us for their books, as well as donating to the shops.'

Bookfest 2011 got off to a flying start with Oxfam's nationwide Books Donation Drive. The three-week appeal resulted in the generous donation of an extra 417,300 books, meaning that Oxfam's shops had plenty of books in time for Bookfest. Early reports from shops indicate that we are well on target to beat the £400,000 increase in book sales which was achieved as a result of last year's Bookfest.

Oxfam made a further £25,000 through the sale of some rare and high value books at an auction run by Bonhams which was the curtain raiser for Bookfest.

In that auction was a copy of local man Samuel Johnson's Marmor Norfolciense published in 1739, which sold for £1200.

Another highlight of Bookfest 2011 has been the launch of OxTravels – a travel anthology with an introduction by Michael Palin, which is being sold with all profits to Oxfam.

The book sold 10,000 copies within the first two weeks of publication, and already the publisher, Profile Books, has had to order a reprint. Oxfam is also selling special edition hardback copies of the book – some of which have been signed by the contributing authors.

We want to say a huge thank you to the people of Lichfield for their support of Bookfest this year.

The success of Bookfest in Lichfield highlights the passion for reading within the community, as well as everyone's fantastic generosity in supporting Oxfam's vital work."

For more information about Bookfest and to find out about events across the country, see: www.oxfam.org.uk/bookfest

Why claim is too costly

IPSA have published Mr Aidan Burley's MP's expenses for 2010-/11.

He has cost the Cannock Chase taxpayers a total of £199,899.11.

Surely, this burden on valuable funding is not of benefit to the constituency?

MIKE OF CANNOCK ADDRESS SUPPLIED

Words of praise for Party in the Park organisers

WHAT a lovely day we had in Cannock Park on Sunday, July 23 at the Party in the Park, celebrating 40 years of twinning with Datteln! It was a really happy occasion where the whole community could come together as one.

What a lot of hard work and advance planning must have gone into producing such a successful event! We would like to thank, especially, Kate McBey from PR and marketing, and Lisa Shepherd and Louise Rose from Community Wellbeing Arts for their dedication and exceptional efforts. Apart from their work beforehand, they were there on the day from 6am, overseeing the smooth running of everything.

A special word of thanks must also go to the four parkkeepers, Martin and Simon and two others. Martin was on the go all the time we were there, picking up litter across the whole area. What he does goes far beyond the call of duty – the beautiful state of the park is due to the hard work and dedication of our park keepers.

It is a pity that certain elements create mayhem at times and abuse the facilities that are there for all of us to enjoy. On Sunday, however, it was good to see so many people of all ages, especially families with young children, out enjoying such a well-organised event.

MAUREEN FREEMAN, MIKE AND PAT MCCORMACK & NEIGHBOURS OLD PENKRIDGE ROAD

Do you remember the Sturges brothers?

Can anyone in the Hednesford area help? I am trying to do some research for two elderly brothers who live in Canada and are planning to visit the Hednesford area in the autumn.

All that they can tell me is that during the Second World War they were evacuated to Hednesford and were billeted with a policeman who lived with his sister somewhere close to Hednesford Hills. They went to a local school which I presume was St. Peter's at Hill Top and remember playing on the hills close to the old reservoir. They also remember that there was a coal mine in the vicinity.Does anyone know the name of the local policeman and where he might have lived with his sister? Were you a pupil of St. Peter's or any other local junior school and remember two little boys, one named Philip, with the surname Sturges who were evacuees in the 1940's?

If you might be able to offer any information to solve this mystery, you can ring me on 01543 422891.

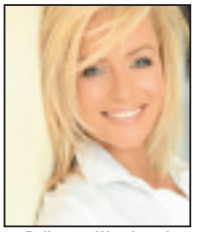
Get rid of those old electrical items to help heart charity

I AM writing to encourage you and your readers in Staffordshire to give your unloved electricals a second chance by donating them to British Heart Foundation (BHF) Furniture & Electrical stores.

I'm a technology magpie and can't resist a shiny new gadget – my home is full of electricals that work perfectly but have simply been upgraded!



Pollyanna Woodward

I'm hoping that your readers will join me and have a rummage in their homes for any unwanted hi-fi's, DVD players, mp3 players and coffee makers – as long as they're still working, the BHF will find them a new home in Staffordshire.

We've all got busy lives so to make it easy to donate, the BHF has joined up with Currys and PC World stores to create more than 1,200 drop off points.

If you're like me and love a money saving venture, warm your heart and your wallet by donating – you'll receive a five per cent voucher to spend in Currys and PC World as well as the chance to win £1,000s worth of brand new prizes.

For those larger electrical items lying around, you can even book a free collection.

All proceeds from the sale of your unwanted electricals will go towards fighting heart disease – last year BHF shops raised £26 million. Have a clear out today and turn your toaster into a lifesaver!

For more information and to locate your nearest drop off point in Staffordshire visit bhf.org.uk/dropitin or call 0844 412 5000.

2011 - Year of the Bible

That the Bible talks about

"SIGNS OF THE TIMES"?

God says he will establish a Kingdom of peace on the earth when the following events occur:

1. Earthquakes, famines and disease throughout the world. (Luke 21v11)
2. There are wars and rumours of wars. (Matthew 24v6)
3. When travel and knowledge will increase. (Daniel 12v4)
4. When there is international distress and fear. (Luke 21v20)

A time remarkably similar to the days in which we live!

You are warmly invited to the following talks which are to aid, help and encourage you to understand the Bible

Pupils in saddle to win prize

TWO Cannock pupils can spend the summer holidays on their new mountain bikes after winning a road safety competition.

Bridgtown Primary School pupils Cameron Aston, aged 10, and Molly Jones, 11, were given their bikes on the last day of term by Carolyn Bevan, a road safety officer at Staffordshire County Council.

They wrote poems and created artwork to promote road safety in Staffordshire. The initiative was called The Staffordshire County Council initiative was sponsored by Michelin Tyres.

Amanda Beard, a higher level teaching assistant at the school, said: "Cameron created a picture illustrating road safety and Molly wrote a poem."

Talk on new racing book

AN author and historian will give a talk on his new horse racing book tonight (Thursday).

Tony Hunt, a former English teacher, has written Hednesford Horse Racing History and will be giving the talk at the monthly meeting of Hednesford Probus Club.

The meeting starts at 10am at the Ex-Servicemen's Club, in Anglesey Street, Hednesford. Non-club members are welcome to attend.

Fashion show

A FASHION show in aid of Soroptimist International is being held at the Barns, in Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington. Stafford fashion store Barbara Powell, will be providing clothes and models for the event on September 20 at 7.30pm.

Rival firm objects to car wash plans

A NEW car sales firm in Cannock has applied for retrospective planning permission to build a car wash on part of its site, sparking objections.

The application has been made by Cannock Car Centre in Walsall Road, which opened last September on the site of the old Peter Boynton showroom.

Bosses there say the new facility will double its full-time workforce to eight. But rival firm Anduff Car Wash, in the same road, has raised concerns over extra traffic and the potential flooding risk.

Planning officers on Cannock Chase District Council have recommended approval and the matter was set to be debated at a planning committee meeting yesterday (Wednesday).

But solicitor Tim Hancock, representing Anduff Car Wash, said the company believes the extra traffic generated could cause congestion on Walsall Road.

Access to the site is close to the main road and does not appear to have room to allow vehicles to enter and exit at the same time, Mr Hancock said.

Demand

"These difficulties are likely to be reinforced by the fact that the car wash facility is likely to experience highest demand at peak periods," he added.

Mr Hancock felt there was not enough room for vehicles to turn around on the site and a resident in nearby Walhouse Street also raised concerns. He said because of its proximity to the main road, many customers turned right as they left the car wash, travelling in the wrong direction on a one-way street.

Anduff Car Wash also said its competitor risked creating a flooding problem, claiming the main sewer will not be able to cope with extra water.

Severn Trent Water said the development should not be permitted until drainage plans for the disposal of surface water and foul sewage have been submitted.

The site had been run by Peter Boynton for more than three decades. It was opened as Cannock Car Centre by the then council chairman Councillor Gordon Alcott.

Beth Stokes, aged 12, with her winning badge design

Warm welcome for past and present pupils and staff

School prepares to celebrate its amazing 50-year history

A HIGH school in Cannock is gearing up to celebrate its 50th anniversary later this year and wants to welcome back pupils from the past.

Cardinal Griffin Catholic High School first opened its gates during October 1961 and five decades on, 950 pupils fill the building and are continuing to do the teachers proud.

Staff and pupils have also bid a fond farewell to head of PE, Nenad Popovic, who has been at the school for 37 years.

He has dedicated his time to encouraging the pupils to get active and has built up a strong hand-ball team which he will continue to monitor despite his departure.

Happy

Deputy head teacher Brian Leechmere, who has been at the school for 15 years, said: "The school is such a happy place which children are pleased to attend and many former pupils have already shown interest in our celebrations. We are also very active both with our pupils and within the community which helps build a great relationship between our parents and teachers.

"Mr Popovic was a prime example of this, he has worked so hard with all of the children over the years and we are all sad to see him go and leave the post he nurtured so well.

"We are a proud school and while the future is always unpredictable we hope to continue to strive to offer staff, pupils and parents the very best."

To mark the special event there will be a ball and buffet on October 15, at the Premier Suite, Cannock, where all staff, friends and former pupils are invited.

Then on November 1 at 7pm, the Archbishop of Birmingham, Reverend Bernard Longley, will be saying Mass at the school which is open to past and present pupils, staff and friends of the school.

The school recently held a design a logo competition and asked pupils to create an official 50th anniversary badge.

Year seven pupil Beth Stokes won with her design which will now appear on a special flag due to be erected at both of the celebrations.

Tickets for the ball are £15 each.

For more information or to share any old school snaps contact Mr Leechmere on 01543 502215.

Family festival pass and £500 Merry Hill gift card up for grabs

Westfield Merry Hill

MERRY Hill Shopping Centre is set to hold the largest two-day family festival in the Midlands on August 12 and 13 – the place to be this school summer holiday.

The Big Bear Bash will see a whole host of fun-packed activities taking place at the centre, including a special visit from popular children's character, Little Charley Bear.

Little Charley Bear will be entertaining children with his new live show, Let's Pretend, at 11am, noon, 1pm, 2pm and 3pm on both days.

Tickets

Live performances from pre-school band, The Bubblepops, a Dudley Zoo pets zone, Westfield Kids' Club tent, competition prizes zone, giant outdoor beach, emergency services display, face painting and fun fair zone are among the many activities in store for families from 10am-4pm during the two-day extravaganza.

The Chronicle has teamed up with Merry Hill to give one lucky reader the chance of winning a family pass (for up to six people) to The Big Bear Bash on August 13 plus, a £500 gift card to spend at Merry Hill Shopping Centre.

Tickets cost £2 each or £10 for a family pass (for up to six people) and are available from the centre's Concierge desk. More information about The Big Bear Bash can be found at http://uk.westfield.com/merryhill

HOW TO ENTER

All you have to do to be in with a chance of winning this great prize is to simply answer the following question:

What is the name of Little Charley Bear's new live show?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number (only one entry per household) to Big Bear Bash Competition, Chronicle series (editorial) 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date: Monday August 8.

Lesley's Tudor time talk helps raise £1,000

HISTORIAN and curator of Tutbury Castle Lesley Smith entertained more than 100 guests with her after dinner talk 'Sex and the Tudors'.

SI Cannock & District organised the event to raise funds for Pathway, the local project which supports women victims of domestic violence and their children.

The evening was held at The Barns restaurant in Huntington. Before the meal, the club's liaison offer Carole Holdcroft explained that the project is now in need of financial support towards everyday running costs of the three refuges – this is in addition to the help club members, their families and friends already give in terms of provision of toiletries and home-making goods.

Lesley Smith is well known in the area and her presence guarantees an excellent turn-out. On this occasion she appeared as herself rather than as a female member of Tudor times.

Lesley had everyone enthralled with her in-depth knowledge of the subject which was so professionally delivered. Certainly everyone went away with their own knowledge of sex and the Tudors greatly increased and having had plenty of opportunities to laugh! A raffle along with donations received prior to the event raised a considerable sum.

Following Lesley's talk and having heard of the plight of the women and children at Pathway, several guests gave further donations resulting in a total of £1,000 being raised.

Added to the fund raising, members of the public from Cannock have been incredibly generous in taking along toiletries to the soroptimist stall at the carnival. Should anyone else wish to donate goods or finances they will be accepted by this year's president Eileen Cryer, who can be contacted on 01543 503375.

Summer social evening was a great success

ETCHING HILL WI

JULY'S meeting of Etching Hill WI took the form of a social evening with a fish and chip supper and a progressive beetle drive.

Margaret Devey told members of her visit to the meeting of Etchinghill WI in Kent. Members of both the local Etching Hill WI, and Etchinghill WI, Kent are keen to keep in touch with each other.

The recent weeks had been very busy for members, with a Macmillan Walk to the Wolsley Arms, the lunch club met up for a meal at the Rag, plus a treasure hunt which concluded at the Bull and Spectacles, when the members had lots of fun with plenty of clues along the way.

With business over, 40 portions of fish and chips were collected from the Jolly Fryer in Fernwood Drive, Rugeley. This was followed by a piece of birthday cake from the 60th birthday party of the Rose and Shamrock Group of WIs.

Held earlier in the month, Etching Hill members joined with other ladies in this local group, from Armitage with Handsacre, Brereton, Gentleshaw, London and Rugeley. It was an enjoyable birthday, and included a meal and entertainment provided by the Chase Harmony singers

August's speaker is Jeremy Walker who will talk about the work of The Edward's Trust. Meetings are held the second Wednesday each month. For further details call Chris Stinton on 01889 585505.

New member gets a warm welcome

CANNOCK WI

THE president welcomed members and two guests to the July meeting with a warm welcome to Tricia Logan who has now joined the Cannock club.

Greetings were given to Stella Winfield for her August birthday.

The president said how lovely it was to see Anne Brookes who has not been well recently. Daughter Susan is giving her excellent care and thanked all of the members for their kind enquiries on behalf of her mother.

The group received a very detailed report from Moira delegate from Hayes Green WI who attended the Liverpool National AGM.

Secretary Chris Pace read out a detailed list of forthcoming events at Staffordshire Federation, and also passed a list around for members to fill in up to date contact details.

Treasurer Barbara Mathews collected money from members who were going to attend SFWI Markets Day meeting on November 8 when the speakers will be James Mitchell and Graham Cole.

Social secretaries Jenni and Jan passed around ideas for the club's annual holiday next year. Due to Jan Shaw's retirement, this will now be arranged with a local coach company. Theatre and panto trips were also discussed. Members were also asked if they would like to change the Christmas meal outing from lunchtime to an evening, but the vote was to keep it to a lunchtime event.

The president congratulated St Luke's Church on the wonderful new kitchen installed in the church hall.

The church hall is greatly used by all walks of the community and a lot of fund raising events are helping towards the cost of the refurbishments.

Member Agnes Overton will be 90 in September and is paying for a party for all WI members. The committee and helpers will arrange a buffet, and this will follow the September meeting at 12.15am.

Guest Speaker Mr Mark Hannah then began his talk on auctioneering.

He explained he was now based at an auction house in Stourbridge, and gave a very informative talk on all kinds of antiques. Members brought in various items for him to value, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed listening to his explanations of the history and values of the items.

He then judged the competition table on the subject of an old clock.

Barbara Mathews gave the vote of thanks on a most interesting topic.

At the meeting at 10.30am on August 11, the guest speaker will be Ben Stephens, an estate planner.

The competition will be an unusual key.

Chase trek to help fund hearing dogs

A PENKRIDGE veterinary surgery is organising a charity walk around Cannock Chase to raise money for Hearing Dogs for Deaf People.

E C Straiton & Partners, of Cannock Road, will be leading the two-and-a-half mile walk around the Chase next Saturday (August 13). Entrants are being asked to make a donation to the charity or collect sponsorship.

Veterinary nurse Lucy Ansell said: "Hearing Dogs for Deaf People do not receive government funding and we thought this would be a good chance to give them some help."

The two-and-a-half mile walk will take place from 11am, with participants being asked to meet at the Birches Valley car park.

For information, contact Ms Ansell on 01785 712235 or call Vicky Ryan, Hearing Dogs for Deaf People co-ordinator on 07824 329063 or email vicky.ryan@hearingdogs.org.uk

Course looks at dyslexia

PARENTS and teaching assistants of children with dyslexia are being invited to join a new six-week course at South Staffordshire College's Cannock campus.

A free taster evening takes place at the campus at The Green on September 13 from 7 to 9pm. The course starts on September 27.

Call 01543 462200 for information.

'Ere we go, Wyrley all off to Wembley

A GREAT Wyrley football club is heading to Wembley after being recognised as the top club in the country.

Wyrley Juniors FC were crowned the winners of the FA's Charter Standard community club category at both regional and national level and will collect their accolade on Sunday (August 7) at the Community Shield clash between Manchesters City and United.

Boasting 45 teams, including 11 girls and one ladies' team, Wyrley Juniors boasts more than 700 players. It is the biggest club in Staffordshire and runs two weekly academies, for girls and boys, which attract a total of 120 youngsters.

The club also works in partnership with Staffordshire community police to provide free coaching to children, raising funds for Meningitis UK and sending outgrown kit and equipment to under-privileged children in Africa.

Club chairman Keith Hardy said: "We are delighted to receive this award which finally gives the club the national recognition it deserves. It is a feather in the cap for not only the club, but for the whole of Staffordshire."

Difference

More than 100 volunteers work behind the scenes at the club and 14 years of dedication will come to fruition at the end of this month when – despite a number of setbacks along the way – its new club base officially opens at Broad Lane, Essington.

The FA and McDonald's community football awards were created to recognise clubs like this across the country that make a difference to grassroots football in their local community.

McDonald's director of football, Sir Geoff Hurst, part of the judging panel, said: "Wyrley Juniors is an example of the type of football club the game relies on, giving youngsters of all ages a game week in, week out with qualified coaches and in a proper environment.

"The volunteers involved with the club deserve to be commended for their hard work."

Next season Wyrley Juniors will welcome three new under-seven's teams, one new under-eights and two new girl's teams.

Visit www.thefa.com/yourgame to find out more about each of the winners.

Residents Joan Dowen and Ron Nichols hold on to their special wish balloons before letting them go into the air

Special wishes for home's celebration

A CARE home in Great Wyrley celebrated its 10th birthday in style as it held a garden party for its residents.

Water's Edge Care Home, in Stafford Road, held the special party on Sunday where each resident wrote down a wish, attached it to a balloon and released it into the air.

The guests of honour were two residents who had been there since the start, Elizabeth Darby, aged 96, and Margaret Scully, 91, and they cut the ribbon together to officially open the party. Manager Sandra Potts said: "We had a fantastic day. The weather was great and everyone had a really good time. When we released the balloons into the air it was very special.

Dancing

"Some of the residents' wishes were very simple ones and we are now doing all we can now to make their wishes come true wherever possible." They ranged from putting on their dancing shoes one more time to never growing older to wanting their pets back.

The newly formed Water's Edge choir sang three songs they had been practising especially for the occasion.

Staff at the home have also compiled a book charting the home's history, including all the major news events that have occurred over the last 10 years, which will be on display for residents and visitors.

Summer Workshop Doctor Dolittle

Based on the stories of Hugh Lofting, the musical concerns the classic tale of a wacky but kind doctor who can talke to animals. The show takes the audience on a journey from the small English Village of Puddleby-in-the-Marsh to the far corners of the world. The story starts with Doctor Dolittle wrongly accused of murder and once pronounced innocent, continues with his search for the Great Pink See Snail, the oldest and wisest of the creatures on earth.
It is the first time this show has been performed in the area and promises to be an all singing, all dancing extravaganza complete with special effects. Puppets and a Great Pink Sea Snail!

Bought to you by PMA Productions, the company that brought you last year's successful Cinderella is a story of love and romance but also of hate and jealousy. As the beautiful, Snow White longs to meet a Prince to fall in love with her evil stepmother is plotting her downfall when she discovers from her magic mirror that Snow White is the most beautiful of all.

With a talented professional cast, George Crichley for PMA Productions recreates the magic and the mirth with modern familiar songs and comedy galore that everyone can enjoy but based on the traditional tale that we all love.

Come to The Prince of Wales Centre from 24th to 31st December 2011 to clap along with Snow White and the handsome prince and to shout and boo at the evil stepmother.

Car sales firm expansion bid

A USED car sales business formed in Cannock in 2009 is to double its number of UK offices by the end of the year.

We Want Any Car was started at Walkmill Lane, Bridgtown and now has 50 offices across the country with 10 in the Midlands including in Dudley, West Bromwich and Smethwick.

The company, which has its head office at Pleasant Acres, in Watling Street, has announced its intention to have twice as many offices in operation by the end of the year offering home visit and collection services across England and Wales.

There has been a boom in car sales online in recent years and We Want Any Car is planning further expansion for 2012.

Customers can get their vehicles valued for free online at www.wewantanycar.com and if they are happy they can then take them to one of the company's sites.

Payment is made through cash transfer into the seller's bank accounts.

Operations director Tim Clapham said the new offices were needed because many customers were travelling more than 80 miles to their nearest car drop off point.

Connection

The company, which operates seven days a week, has also just bought a fleet of 30 vans bearing its name.

It is also in the process of recruiting new staff including area managers and sales executives through its website from across the UK.

The Cannock firm has no connection with webuyanycar.com which was rapped by the Office of Fair Trading for back pedalling on its online valuations.

Vine Court resident Iris Theobold with her winning painting 'My First Attempt' with gallery manager Ashley Corrigan at the Artworx Gallery, in, Avon Road, Cannock

Iris wins art contest with her first attempt

PENSIONERS turned arty at a Bridgtown home after staff set up a competition. Tapestries, paintings, embroideries and 3D works were among the entries at Vine Court.

Ashley Corrigan, manager of the Artworx Gallery at the Cedars Business Centre, in Avon Road, was called upon to judge the contest and was amazed by the talent on show.

She said: "Some of the pieces were stunning. A lady called Doris entered a phenomenal piece of tapestry that she did 20 years ago but I felt the prize should go to something created more recently."

She chose a landscape watercolour by Iris Theobold as the winner. The 69-year-old carer, who painted the scene while on a retreat with her daughter, cares for her husband who is a resident at the home.

The picture, entitled My First Attempt, was unveiled in front of Iris's family and friends at a presentation and will be on show at Artworx.

Transplant man is going for gold

A FORMER Chase man who overcame a double lung transplant to continue his sporting career is going for gold this weekend.

Mark Allen, a one time reporter for the Chronicle and its sister paper the Express & Star, is due to compete in the Westfield Health British Transport Games in Belfast, which take place from today (Thursday) to Sunday (August 7). Around 600 athletes will take part in 20 different spors.

Now aged 39 and living in Widnes, Mark, who has cystic fibrosis and diabetes, had a double lung transport on his birthday in 2005 which was rejected a year later.

Despite his health problems and the fact his lung capacity is below 25 per cent, Mark will be taking part in four events – table tennis, javelin, 200 metres and ball throw– in the games. The British Transplant Games raises awareness of the need for more people to sign on to the NHS Organ Donor Register.

A former cricketer and badminton player, Mark won gold, silver and bronze in the European Heart and Lung Games in Sweden.

"Some people take it really seriously, but that is not what the spirit of it is about," he said. "For example, I cannot run but I will be doing the 200m in a slow jog, just to take part."

"I really miss being fit enough to play cricket and badminton and running like I used to," he added. "But for these few days I feel like an athlete.

"We have to fund ourselves and it can cost up to £500 for accommodation, flight and travel. And I have to take the time off as part of my annual holiday from work – but it is worth it."

Gone for a Burton as play assistant retires

Abigail Follows and Oliver Timmins, both aged three, wish Dot Burton a happy retirement

STAFF, youngsters and parents at Great Wyrley's Landywood Playgroup have said farewell to a long-serving assistant. Dot Burton, aged 68, was presented with a painting by a member of a local art club as well as vouchers and flowers.

Mrs Burton spent 28 years with the group which runs Mondays to Thursdays from 9am to 12 noon at Great Wyrley Community Centre.

Leader Linda Harrington said: "We will all miss Dot. She was a brilliant member of the team."

Bracken control to protect heathland

At the 10th anniversary celebrations for Trinity Church in Hednesford are, front left, organiser Jenny Kendal, aged 60, Elaine Woolley, 69, who was at the original opening, and volunteer Wendy Smith, 59

WORK will start this month to control invasive bracken that is spreading across Cannock Chase. The bracken is threatening precious and rare heathland wildlife and its habitats.

Councillor Mark Winnington, Staffordshire County Council's cabinet member with responsibility for the environment said the work was essential and that it would 'help protect the wildlife of Cannock Chase for both today's and future generations of Staffordshire people'.

He said: "We have a responsibility to safeguard this rare and important landscape and its wildlife, and our team of wildlife specialists are dedicated to ensuring we do so using the best methods available that are approved by top experts in the field."

Habitat

If untreated, bracken swamps out heathland plants that are important for some of the Chase's rarest wildlife. These include birds like nightjar and woodlark, reptiles, and a variety of insects, such as green hairstreak butterflies and the green tiger beetle.

Teams will be out on foot or with small all-terrain vehicles treating bracken in well marked areas of the Chase in dry weather. The treatment will protect large areas of heathland, bilberry and grasses like wavy-hair grass now occupying former bracken areas within the Sherbrook and Oldacre Valleys, creating the right habitat for skylarks, stonechats and meadow pipits, as well making access for visitors easier.

In addition, smaller areas of invading bramble and birch scrub, particularly in Oldacre Valley, will be controlled to improve access.

In the past, traditional practices such as grazing with cattle and sheep would have helped control invasive species and keep the heathland open, while local people collected bracken and small trees for animal bedding and firewood.

In the absence of these practices, the teams will use wildlife-safe sprays that are harmless to people, animals and pets.

The programme of work has been approved by Britain's national wildlife guardians, Natural England, and all the necessary consents obtained and notifications have been undertaken.

Diners pop in for lunch club's 10th anniversary

VOLUNTEERS cut a birthday cake to mark 10 years of serving up hot meals in Hednesford.

Trinity Pop-in began in 2001. It offers a free lunch to elderly and vulnerable people once a week at Trinity Church in Station Road.

It started giving visitors soup and a roll but soon grew and now has a menu with a choice of two main courses and two desserts.

Founder Jenny Kendal, aged 60, said volunteers now served around 60 to 70 people every Thursday in the church hall at the back of the church. They also hold a monthly lunch club on a Wednesday.

Mrs Kendal of Pye Green, Hednesford, said: "When we started we had just six people in our first week but now we get as many as 70."

Donation to Legion

WILTSHIRE Farm Foods of Lichfield has donated a projector and screen to the Burntwood and district branch of the Royal British Legion.

The branch is now seeking a laptop computer to give professional presentations to schools and groups about the RBL's work .

The branch will be taking part in Chasewater Railway's charity day on August 14 and FAB (Forward Action Burntwood) fete which takes place at Burntwood Leisure Centre on August 20. It is seeking donations of old Wellingtons to use in welly wanging competitions.

Contact branch secretary Joan Davison on 01543 671655.

Zumba time at church

A CHADMOOR church is staging Zumba4Zimmer sessions, aimed at men and women who do not get regular exercise. The sessions begin at St Chad's Church at 10.30am on Thursday (August 11). Cost £3.50 per session, with proceeds going to the church. Next year St Chad's will be 120 years old and is looking to compile an exhibition and book. Anyone with memorabilia or photographs is asked to get in touch. There will also be a barn dance on September 17 in the church hall. Call Sue Searle on 01543 451480 for more details.

Two are cut free as car is involved in collision

TWO people were cut free from a car after it hit a stationary vehicle in Cannock. The accident involving a Nissan Primera and a Volkswagen Touran happened in Walkmill Lane, Bridgtown at 2pm on Saturday (July 30).

Firefighters removed the roof to release a man aged 20, and a woman, 58, from the Primera. They were both taken by ambulance to New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton.

There were two adults and two children in the Touran, but no-one was seriously hurt.

Court date to evict travellers

Caravans that have parked up on land at Huntsman's Rise in Huntington

DOZENS of travellers facing eviction from a patch of land in Huntington are set to stay – at least until today (Thursday), council bosses have admitted.

South Staffs District Council will have to wait until then to get a court order ratified before they can reclaim the land at Huntsmans Rise, near the Chase Golf Club.

A large group of travellers moved onto the site last Thursday afternoon (July 28) and the council has since confirmed some have also moved onto land at Hilton Cross, near Wolverhampton.

Reclaimed

Council officers spent Monday securing a date for the hearing at Walsall County Court.

South Staffs District Council's chief executive Steve Winterflood said the authority was doing all it could to resolve the situation but conceded it was unlikely the site would be reclaimed before today.

Some 40 caravans were spotted at the site on Thursday.

Rotary Club President Anthony Hicks and member Barry Jones present Jake Gower with his Best Trier Award

Gower bout that? – Jake's top award

A RUGELEY pupil received a special community award for his hard work and dedication to his school and fellow pupils.

Jake Gower, of Churchfield Primary, Sandy Lane, received the Best Trier award in a special school assembly hosted by Rugeley Rotary Club.

The club has been presenting the award to schools across Rugeley since 1978 to acknowledge outstanding students.

Headteacher Linda Hack said each of the teachers chose two pupils they thought were the school's best triers.

After some deliberations they picked 11-year-old Jake who they believed had excelled in and out of school. Earlier this year Jake helped to raise £900 for the Air Ambulance in a sponsored bike ride.

Mrs Hack said: "Everyone had a brilliant day and Jake was so surprised to receive the award.

"He really stood out for us because of his commitment to his school work and his encouragement to the other pupils. Jake is always willing to go that extra mile and it is excellent that there is an award like this because it shows the children that what they do really does matter."

This is only the second time the award has come to Churchfield.

Margaret Jones, of the rotary club, said: "The award encourages the children to do their best.

"It isn't just about rewarding those with the highest grades but noticing the children who have really excelled themselves personally."

Holly's sights set on future in media

A RUGELEY student has set her sights on becoming a famous journalist after proving a natural talent.

Holly Edwards was picked out by former BBC journalist Shirley Mann, now a public relations consultant, who was drafted in to work with pupils at Fair Oak Business and Enterprise College.

A media facility was set up at the school after it secured funding from the creative partnerships programme, organised by Staffordshire-based charity Partners in Creative Learning. The media room was run in the same way as a television, radio or newspaper newsroom.

Opportunity

Twelve-year-old Holly, from Brereton, impressed with her work, including a star turn in front of the cameras reading the weather on a trip to Nottingham Trent University's media department.

She said: "Our school has had a rare opportunity to learn more about the media and it's shown me what I want to do as a career."

The school, in Penkridge Bank Road, wanted to improve literacy and hit on the idea of a media department after discussion with PiCL's project manager Paula Moss.

Budding journalist Holly Edwards, aged 12

Head Christine Hardman said the Creative Partnerships programme gave the school the platform to use media technology to help raise standards of literacy across the curriculum. It also gave the college the chance to work with other local schools on the programme.

Mrs Hardman said: "Holly is a shining example of how the Creative Partnerships programme has enabled the school to fire the imaginations of our students."

The school has also invested in media facilities including green-screen filming points around the building so pupils and teachers can make news bulletins and short films.

PiCL director Rachel Billington said the school had used the Creative Partnerships funding wisely in establishing facilities which would have a legacy of unearthing more budding stars like Holly.

Pupils bid farewell to John Bamford head Lawrie Wood

'Sir' is heading off

A RUGELEY headteacher has said farewell after 14 years at his school – but he is not short of plans for things to do.

Lawrie Wood has happy memories of his time at John Bamford Primary. He now intends to indulge in his interests in natural history and photography with a trip to Africa.

Mr Wood, aged 59, is originally from Hampshire and has taught for 36 years. He arrived at the school in Crabtree Way in 1997. He had previously been head at Greysbrooke Primary in Shenstone and Longwood Primary School in Tamworth.

He said: "Fourteen years is a long time to be connected to a school and it will be sad to leave."

They do like to be beside the seaside

MORE THAN 200 pensioners from Rugeley and Brereton graced the sands of Southport thanks to the backing of a host of local groups.

Rugeley Senior Citizens committee embarked upon their annual trip on Monday (August 1). The group who work tirelessly to raise funds for the outing were waved off by members of the Rugeley Lions Club, who sponsored them £425 for one of their coaches.

Club representatives handed over a cheque to committee members before their departure. Staffordshire Local Community Fund, Rugeley Town Council, Brereton Parish Council and Rugeley Power Station also contributed towards the costs.

Members of the committee are now looking to start preparations for next year's summer excursion.

New route on the road for success

Dave Brent, general manager Cannock, Kevin Walker, Arriva area manager, County Councillor Ian Shires, Keith Myatt, Arriva communications manager, acting operations manager Gordon Frost and front: VIP Daniel Taylor

A NEW bus service is opening up a gateway of opportunities for people in Cannock by going straight to Birmingham.

The new X31 service, which will take just 55 minutes to get from Cannock to the second city, reduces current travelling time by a third.

The service, operated by Arriva, means Birmingham is now another option for people looking for jobs or families looking for a summer day out.

Keith Myatt, Arriva Midlands communication manager, said: "This will make a huge difference to commuters between Cannock and Birmingham because they'll save almost half an hour as they'll no longer have to change at Walsall.

"It will also save families petrol and parking costs for day trips to the many attractions in Birmingham city centre. The X31 buses are all low floor vehicles, meaning they are easy to access for all our passengers."

The bus route was officially launched last week by local councillors, and will depart from Cannock bus station every hour before arriving at Carrs Lane in Birmingham.

The new service also nominated a bus VIP, Daniel Taylor, who is an unemployed former student and sees the route open up a variety of opportunities for him in Birmingham.

Mr Myatt added: "We saw the need for this new direct route following feedback from our customers, and we are very pleased to be able to respond by having the new X31 express service."

The route travels from Cannock Bus Station to Carrs Lane, Birmingham via Great Wyrley, Cheslyn Hay, New Invention, Short Heath, Lane Head/Ashmore Lake, Shepwell Green and Bentley, then direct along the M6.

Calls for centre to stay open

THE Government has been criticised for paying staff overtime at a benefits centre set to close. Cannock Benefit Processing Centre will shut after a decision was made to cut back on office numbers.

In all, 200 staff will move to Walsall and Wolverhampton before May next year.

However the current backlog of Job Seekers Allowance claims in Cannock is so high staff are being paid overtime to cope.

Jason Ferraby, branch secretary of the Public and Commercial Services Union in South Staffordshire, said the high volume of work proves the centre should be kept open long term or even expanded.

He said: "If overtime is being offered, there is an argument for a greater number of staff.

"The best option all round is for this site to remain open and seats filled with staff that can provide an improved quality customer service to our very vulnerable customers."

Clare Djordjevitch, spokeswoman for the Department for Work and Pensions defended the decision to close the centre, and said overtime is necessary.

She said: "We can't afford to carry on paying for buildings which we don't need when staff can be accommodated elsewhere.

"However to ensure that we provide people with benefits quickly and efficiently, over the peak summer leave season, we do make limited use of overtime."

NHS staff get service awards

CLOSE to 200 workers at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust have been recognised for their long service.

The group clocked up a total of 3,285 years between them, with awards ranging from 10 years service up to 35. They were recognised for service to Stafford and Cannock Hospitals.

At Stafford General Hospital, 163 people picked up awards, with 22 staff at Cannock Chase Hospital were also congratulated.

Roger Green, who has been in the works department for 25 years said: "It's gone very quickly."

Lyn Hill-Tout, chief executive of the trust, presented staff with badges and certificates to reward their commitment.

Football courses for youngsters

CHILDREN in Cannock can sharpen their football skills on a five-day coaching course at Chase Leisure Centre. The courses are for children aged four to 11. Further sessions will also take place between August 15-19 and August 22-26. To book a place on one of the courses call 01543 504065.

Rock Dogs' pub concert

CANNOCK band the Rock Dogs are playing at The Talbot pub in Heath Hayes this Saturday (August 6).

The self-styled modern indie rock group play covers from the likes of Foo Fighters, U2, Kings of Leon, Arctic Monkeys and Oasis, to name but a few.

Entry to the gig at the Hednesford Road pub is free and the Rock Dogs will be on stage from 9pm.

Compere Cole Parker

Talent show hopeful to compere comedy night

ONE of the stars of ITV's current stand-up talent programme Show Me the Funny is the compere for a comedy night in Lichfield tonight (Thursday). Cole Parker is due to compere the Stroke Comedy Club at the George Hotel.

Topping the bill for the night of laughs will be hyperactive scouse veteran Simon Bligh.

With a Time Out Comedy Award and Perrier Award nomination under his belt, Simon is in big demand on the comedy circuit.

Co-headliner is Gordon Southern, while also appearing is rising star Phil Knoxville. Doors open at 7.30pm and tickets are £12.

The Saturdays are one of the headline acts at the Ultrasound Festival at Tamworth Castle next month

Proms in the Park plans finalised

WITH less than a month to go the finishing touches are being made to this year's Lichfield Proms in Beacon Park.

The end-of-summer outdoor concert takes place on Saturday September 3 and many Lichfield businesses are liaising with Lichfield District Council to finalise plans for the spectacular event.

Lichfield Proms is set to feature music from Lichfield City Concert Band and British Police Symphony Orchestra, while there will also be solos from soprano singer Joanne Mayling and tenor Mitesh Khatri.

Wonderful

Councillor Val Richards, the council's cabinet member for leisure services, said: "Proms is always the event to end the summer in style, bringing thousands of people together from across the region to enjoy a wonderful evening.

"It is a huge event to organise, and we could not do it without our sponsors, who are vital to the success of proms."

Sponsors backing Lichfield Proms this year Beacon Street Garage, Thornton Claverley, PJS Autos, Moseleys Solicitors, Lichfield City Council, Swinfen Broun Charitable Trust and host of Staffordshire County councillors.

"We are so grateful to their support and would like to thank them all," Councillor Richards added.

"I hope everyone puts a date in their diary for proms, and joins us for what promises to be a fabulous evening."

Sultry sound of Saturdays tops the bill at Ultrasound

A WEALTH of pop talent has been lined up for a music festival in Staffordshire next month.

The Saturdays, N-Dubz, Tinie Tempah, Scouting for Girls and Madness are all on the bill for the Ultrasound Music Festival, due to be held at Tamworth Castle.

Other acts to have been announced include Example, Chipmunk, Alexis Jordan, Starboy Nathan, Loic Essien, Parade, Lawson and Six-D.

The festival takes place on September 3 and 4 and will see more than 40,000 fans descend on the Staffordshire town.

Adam Bridge, director of the Ultrasound Music Festival, said: "These are artists that will create a real buzz for the festival and this is just the beginning.

"The event has already been dubbed 'the last great pop party of the summer' and we'll be making sure it lives up to the name.

"Already a number of acts are releasing new singles on and around the dates of the Festival which makes it even more exciting.

"Added to the fact that many artists are doing a full on stage set not just a couple of numbers – Madness will perform a full 90 minutes set on Sunday.

"This is an absolutely unmissable pop event at an unbeatable value."

AMY WINEHOUSE TRIBUTE

BBC2, 10.35pm

Over the last years of her life, Amy Winehouse featured far more in the papers for her troubled personal life than her music. Nevertheless, fans were still shocked when it was announced that she'd been found dead. Many were also surprised to realise that she was just 27 probably because Amy's career got off to a very early start. This programme sees Jools Holland introducing a selection of her performances, but if you need a further reminder of just what a distinctive voice we've lost, BBC Sessions: Amy Winehouse, which follows at 11.10pm, sees the singer-songwriter performing some of her best-known tracks.

star extra TRAVEL

WEST END BREAKS

Choose your show, price band and how you want to travel*

Coach inclusive breaks

Selected weekend departures — FROM £124.95 (Saturday Night) / FROM £129.95 (Dine and Dance)

Take in a top West End show and have some free time in London for shopping and sightseeing. For the Dine and Dance option see the matinee performance before heading back to the hotel for dinner and disco (conditions apply). For the Saturday Night option you will see the evening performance. For both breaks the price includes a theatre ticket, overnight stay in a four-star outer London hotel, with full English breakfast (plus dinner for Dine and Dance options). Pick ups are from Dudley, Shrewsbury, Telford, Walsall and Wolverhampton.

Rail inclusive breaks

Departures most weekends — FROM £129.95

Catch the Theatre Express and enjoy a super two-day weekend break in the capital. There's a choice of London hotels and your ticket is for a Saturday evening performance. Rail travel is standard class with the option to upgrade. Depart Saturday morning/early afternoon from Birmingham New Street, Sandwell and Dudley, Stafford or Wolverhampton, returning on the Sunday afternoon/early evening to give plenty of free time for shopping and sightseeing. Stay the Friday evening too for an additional cost.

Self-drive breaks

Departures most weekends — FROM £89.95 (Friday Night) / FROM £99.95 (Saturday Night)

The self-drive break is for one evening staying either on the Friday night or Saturday night in a four-star hotel. You will see the evening performance: for Friday night you will have a top price ticket and for Saturday evening there is a choice of price bands. Stay extra nights for a reasonable supplement (subject to availability).

 The "from" price and price bands vary for each show – see brochure for details. Single room supplements apply.*

DEADLY 60 ON A MISSION

BBC1, 6pm

David Attenborough may be the daddy of all wildlife presenters, but Bafta and Emmy-nominated writer, TV presenter and naturalist Steve Backshall has given him a run for his money over the years. In the first of a new series he embarks on a quest to encounter the world's 60 deadliest animals in their natural habitats. In Costa Rica, he is nearly throttled by a boa constrictor, meets a viper that can strike at breathtaking speed and observes the world's most poisonous frog. He also has a close encounter with a vampire bat.

Website for period homeowners

The Period Property Marketplace is a new website that has been created for people who live, or want to live, in an older or character home.

The site is the result of three years work by a small and dedicated team whose aim is to create, for the first time, a definitive source of information for people who enjoy the benefits period living.

With more than 60 per cent of all homes in the UK having been built before 1960, this sector represents a huge market for buying, selling, renting, renovating, repairing and maintaining houses.

FEATURES OF THE SITE

The Property Directory

This is a unique property portal where only homes built more than 50 years ago appear.

Inspiration for creating the directory was gained from the realisation that other property portals made it very hard for a viewer to find a particular style of property.

They have to wade through sometimes hundreds of modern houses to find something that matches their aspirations.

The intuitive search tool allows the viewer to select a wide variety of options including price, location (village, countryside, suburbs etc), period, even the style of home they desire to purchase.

The Products & Trades Directory

This allows the viewer to find specialists to help them refurbish, renovate, protect, repair or make their period home more beautiful.

The comprehensive list of specialist companies is separated into over 160 easy to search categories so they can quickly find providers of traditional products, specialist services and old fashioned crafts.

Helpful Advice

This section will provide viewers with invaluable advice on wide range of subjects related to living in a character property. The information will be drawn from specialists to provide impartial answers to many common issues.

The Period Property Forum

Many owners of these older properties sometimes need to seek advice from other people who have faced a similar issue with their ageing home.

The forum offers them the opportunity to get answers or advice from the many millions of other owners of similar properties, or indeed, from industry professionals who may be able to help.

Bob Young, commercial director of The Period Property Marketplace. He comments on the introduction of the website: "On the internet you can find almost endless amounts of information whether you are looking at buying, selling, renovating, repairing or just making your period home more beautiful to live in.

"The problem, as we saw it, was that it was so fragmented that you would probably be a relic yourself when you found what you were looking for!

"Our answer was to create a site that made it simple for viewers to find everything they want or need to enjoy the lifestyle of a bygone era and to exchange views and advice with like-minded people."

Losing your financial way in home hunt

Home hunters overspent their combined budgets by a staggering £3.7 billion* last year, despite falling house prices and what should be a buyers market.

This might be explained in the West Midlands by the fact that buyers here are more likely than anywhere else in the UK to get caught up in the excitement of the purchase (23 per cent).

A survey of 2,000 home buyers has revealed that almost half (49 per cent) blow their budget on average to the tune of over £10,000 – although with West Midland buyers this rose to £11,686.

For one in 10 home buyers the situation is even more extreme, with finances stretched to cover an additional spend of up to £50,000, while for a frivolous few (two per cent) it topped the scales at more than £100,000.

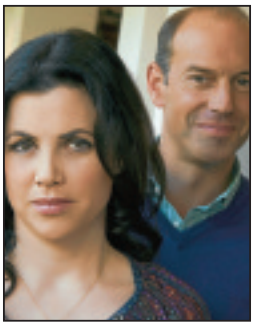
Caught

Although some buyers are happy stretching themselves financially to secure their dream home, the findings have revealed that for many new home owners, the overspend in property purchase price is often unplanned and sometimes unexpected.

One in five buyers (20 per cent) admit to getting caught up in the excitement of the moment, letting their heart over rule their head, whilst one in ten (10 per cent) don't factor in the cosmetic work required to make their new house a home.

A similar number (11 per cent) are caught out by the level of legal and estate agent fees they need to build into their buying budget.

Stamp duty is another major issue, with more than half of house hunters (58 per cent) saying they are clueless as to the level they are required to pay when shopping and budgeting for their new home.



Kirsty Allsopp and Phil Spencer have launched an Iphone app

In response to the findings, television property gurus Kirstie Allsopp and Phil Spencer, have launched the iPhone app Kirstie & Phil's House Hunter, available from iTunes.

It is the first to allow buyers to search across thousands of UK properties while being guided through every stage of the house buying process, from searches and viewings to making an offer and closing the deal.

House Hunter is packed with videos and audio tip guides from Kirstie and Phil and contains chapters including a definitive guide to finance, mortgages, dealing with agents, legal processes and exchange and completion.

Kirstie says: "Going over your intended budget isn't always a bad thing if it means getting your dream home for a price you can still afford.

"However, with house prices as low as they are at present it should be a buyers market, and so it's worrying to hear how many people are spending too much either because they're not striking a deal or because they're not on top of their finances.

"Factors like estate agent fees and stamp duty will leave a serious hole in a budget if they're not prepared for and it's staggering to find out how many people are being caught out."

Combine

Another significant reason for the overspend seems to be the fact Brits are not good at bagging a bargain.

Aa staggering 40 per cent of all buyers said they offered the asking price for their home without entering into any negotiation.

Phil adds: "We know from helping hundreds of people through the buying process that the same problems and pitfalls arise time and time again and that's why we've created the app.

"It's the first to combine an extensive property search function with great tools to help buyers manage their individual search, from tracking and scoring viewings, calculating finances and doing the deal to managing the move.

"As such we hope it will go some way to keeping the process stress free for house hunters, as well as on budget.

*The £3.7 billion figure was based on figure from the Land Registry Office.

Home of Property

Look for good all round plants that can survive the extremes. Hostas and gunnera cope well with wet weather

Weathering storm for colourful garden

FROM droughts to downpours, big chills to high winds, the recent extreme weather conditions have played havoc with our plants.

Nigel Bishop, Horticultural Advisor to the Shrewsbury Flower Show, gives us his tips on how to get the best from your garden, whatever the weather.

The severe and prolonged winter of 2010/11 saw temperatures in some parts of the country drop below 20 degrees. The cold snap was followed by a prolonged dry spell, which killed off or damaged many garden plants and shrubs, leaving large gaps in our carefully planned gardens.

Although we must accept our climate is changing, at the moment these extremes of weather don't occur very often. So although many gardeners are turning to more frost hardy plants, my advice is don't be put off from planting slightly tender plants that are more attractive. If planted in a more sheltered spot, they could provide years of enjoyment.

Many of the plants that have failed this year have been introduced from warmer climates such as New Zealand and some Mediterranean Regions. Their production is on a massive scale, often in an artificial environment to produce saleable plants of quality for the public.

If you have lost plants, use this as an opportunity to re design and re plant your garden and what better way to do this than to visit this year's Shrewsbury Flower Show on 12 and 13 August.

All the experts, including myself and BBC Chris Beardshaw will be on hand to provide advice, as well as a host of garden designers, growers and suppliers of a wide range of plant material. From tools to irrigation systems, garden ornaments to benches, you will find everything you need for your garden.

But before you visit make a few notes: consider the orientation of your garden – is it exposed or sheltered? This will make a big difference when selecting plants.

Hostas

What is your soil type – light sandy, heavy clay or shallow soil over chalk? Is the soil damp and in shade? Use a tester kit to find out what the pH of your soil is (which is a measurement of the acidity or alkalinity). This will help you select plants that are best suited to your garden.

If you want to play it safe, look for good all round plants that can survive the extremes. Bog plants like hostas and gunnera cope well with very wet weather and some exotic plants, like bamboo can be hardy if you choose the right variety. If you have an exposed garden, lift tender plants in the winter and trim tall plants to stop them being buffeted by the wind. Wrap terracotta pots in hessian, fleece or bubble wrap to stop them from cracking during frosty spells.

To get the best effect in your garden design you need interest and colour all year round. Bulbs are an easy way to brighten up your garden and are relatively cheap.

From the cheerful daffodil in the spring to the autumn flowering crocus and cyclamen, bulbs give you that seasonal variation.

The hardy favourites are the daffodil, tulip, hyacinth, crocus, and cyclamen. Bulbous plants include bulbs, corms, tubers and rhizome.

These can be bought from the show for September planting and spring flowering.

The 2011 Shrewsbury Flower Show will take place on 12 and 13 August. For information and tickets go to www.shrewsburyflowershow.org.uk or call 01743 234050.

An ideal first step on property ladder

A street scene at Barratt West Midlands' Bracken Gardens development on Armitage Road, Rugeley

LEADING housebuilder Barratt West Midlands now has a new range of coach house properties at its Bracken Gardens development on Armitage Road, Rugeley.

Once owned only by the wealthy, coach houses now provide an excellent way for first time buyers to get their foot on the property ladder – and while they used to have a ground floor keeping horses overnight, today's coach houses offer plenty of space for a garage to keep modern day transport secure instead.

As well as a ground floor garage, the Midhurst-style one-bedroom coach house benefits from a stylish modern kitchen, double bedroom, living/dining area and bathroom – providing everything you need for an ideal starter home.

"Our latest coach houses are perfect for anyone looking for a great first home in Rugeley" said Lisa Thacker, Sales Manager for Barratt West Midlands.

Delighted

"They offer plenty of space for young couples just starting out in their first home. We have a comprehensive range of services for first time buyers in Rugeley and we offer full support throughout your move.

"We're delighted to have this new release of coach houses and we're looking forward to welcoming first time buyers to Bracken Gardens to show them everything we have to offer in Rugeley."

Bracken Gardens features a range of one-bedroom apartments available from £99,950 and two- and three-bedroom houses priced from £132,450.

For more information, contact the sales office on 01543 491171 open from Thursday to Monday from 10am to 5pm. Or call the sales hotline on 0844 811 9933 open from 8am-9pm or log on to www.barratthomes.co.uk/brackengardens

Rising costs at the pumps hit nation's top tourist attractions

The Smart ForTwo

TOURIST attractions are the latest victims of the rising cost of fuel, as increasing numbers of motorists decide not to take days out in their cars because of the increased cost of filling up their tanks.

In July it was reported that fuel sales were down by around a billion litres, showing the impact that the price of petrol and diesel is having on personal travelling habits.

The issue is compounded by the rises in inflation and the consumer prices index, compared with a real-term decrease in pay for many ordinary people.

The bottom line is that 68 per cent of users who responded to a poll on the Motorpoint website said that increased costs at the pump would stop them visiting the kind of tourist attractions that they would normally head to during the summer months, while 31 per cent vowed to carry on regardless.

From January to March, fuel sales figures dropped by 15.2 per cent for petrol and six per cent for diesel relative to the same period in pre-recession 2008.

It's likely that the number of company cars and commercial vehicles on the road has held diesel sales steadier than they might have been, but even with many aspects of the employment and economic scenes having improved in the past 12 months, petrol sales were still 3.7 per cent down on last year's figures.

Diesel sales, despite having dropped significantly since 2008, were 0.5 per cent higher this year than they were at the same time last year.

David Shelton, the managing director of Motorpoint, says the survey's conclusions are disappointing.

"We think it's sad to see that some people won't be visiting some of the great attractions available in the UK this year due to the rising costs of fuel preventing them from making the sometimes necessary longer journeys to get there," he said.

People looking for a cheaper car to buy and run could look at the diesel Smart ForTwo, which returns more than 85mpg on the combined cycle, or for something bigger there's the surprisingly spacious Fiat Panda, which as a 1.3 diesel can average more than 67mpg.

It was reported in July that fuel sales were down by around a billion litres

Bold styling change for Honda's new SUV

HONDA has released an image of the new CR-V Concept, providing the first official glimpse of styling direction.

The all-new, fourth-generation CR-V is set to go on sale in the United States by the end of this year, and in Europe in autumn 2012.

The new CR-V Concept embraces a distinctive and bold styling direction.

Compared with the previous generation, the concept model takes on a more aggressive stance with deeper sculpting of the body lines and a bolder front fascia.

The lower front bumper wraps smartly upward to convey SUV capability, while the overall lower front bumper design now integrates more smoothly into the fascia for improved aerodynamics.

The CR-V's vertical tail lights remain for the next model with a more three-dimensional style that wraps further into the design of the vehicle.

Equipped with more efficient engines compared to the current model, the new CR-V is expected to deliver improved fuel economy.

The CR-V is one of the top-selling SUVs, sold in more than 160 countries throughout Europe, Asia, North America, South America and Africa.

The new CR-V Concept will be on first public display at the Orange County International Auto Show in Anaheim, California, in September.

New engines for lean, green Panda

The Fiat Panda, which now comes fitted with a Euro 5-compliant engine

FIAT'S evergreen Panda has reinforced its impressive environmental credentials with the recent introduction of Euro 5 engines across the city car range.

Higher top speed, stronger acceleration, improved fuel consumption and lower CO2 figures are all important features of these lean, green power units, which come fitted to the new line-up of Panda 1.2 Active, 1.2 MyLife, 1.2 Dynamic and the diesel 1.3 MultiJet Dynamic. The 1.2-litre Euro 5 engine replaces the Panda's previous entry-level 1.1-litre petrol unit.

The 69bhp unit can take the car from 0-62mph in 13.4 seconds and gives it a top speed of 101mph. It returns 57.6mpg (combined cycle) and has a CO2 figure of 113g/km.

The 1.3-litre MultiJet diesel version delivers 0-62mph acceleration in 13.1 seconds and a maximum speed of 103mph. With a combined cycle fuel consumption figure of 67.3mpg, it gives a 109g/km CO2 figure.

Entry-level Active models offer power steering, electric front windows, body-coloured bumpers and driver and passenger airbags as standard.

MyLife cars add alloy wheels, remote central locking and 12v power socket, while Dynamic trim adds body-coloured door mirrors and handles, roof bars, air conditioning, pearlescent paint, MP3 player and foglights.

OFFICIAL FUEL ECONOMY FIGURES FOR THE BMW RANGE: EXTRA URBAN 26.2–78.5MPG (10.8-3.9L/100KM). URBAN 12.8-56.5MPG (22.0-5.3L/100KM). COMBINED 19.2-68.9MPG (14.7-4.4L/100KM). CO2 EMISSIONS 352-109G/KM.

*50:50 Select is available on the following models: BMW 6 and 7 Series, M3, X5 and X6 and Z4. Full terms and conditions available from the dealership. Valid for orders placed up to and including 31 December 2011 and registered by 31 December 2011 on BMW 6 and 7 Series, M3, X5 and X6. The 50/50 offer for Z4 (Highline models only) is valid on orders placed by 30th September 2011, registered by 31st December 2011. Excess mileage charges and vehicle condition charges may be payable if you return the vehicle. All finance is subject to status and available to over 18s only in the UK (excluding the Channel Islands). Guarantees and indemnities may be required. We can arrange finance for you. Advertised finance is provided by BMW Financial Services (BMW FS). Whilst we have close links with BMW FS and commonly introduce customers to BMW FS, we do not work exclusively with BMW FS. BMW EfficientDynamics reduces BMW emissions without compromising performance developments and is standard across the model range.

STILL AS GOOD TODAY

IT'S SAID that buying a car is one of the most stressful times of your life. That's probably because, after a house, it's the largest purchase you are likely to make.

Hodsons, of Stone Cross, Penkridge, is a family-owned business that prides itself on taking the stress out of buying a car.

Established in the area during the 1950's, Hodsons is a small business that prides itself on a friendly, efficient service - whether you are in the market to buy, hire, lease or wish to have your car serviced.

Hodsons has experienced staff. Dealer principal Ian Withers leads the team with Tony Jackson (sales manager) and Paul Clayton (service manager).

They can advise you on all new and used Fords and, if required, suggest tailor-made finance deals to suit your pocket.

Paul welcomes Fords and other makes and can offer vehicles for transit to work or home if your vehicle is off the road.

Last year saw the start of Hodsons Hire.

Ian Withers is available to explain and advise on the very best possible car hire arrangement. Both cars and commercial vehicles are available for hire.

Hodsons also offers specialist contract hire terms and all forms of leasing packages to VAT registered companies.

At present they are offering special contract hire transactions on brand new Mondeos (see advertisement).

Ian Withers is available to explain and advise on the very best possible car hire arrangement.

At the moment Hodsons has a wide range of N-registration 1995/96 Ford vehicles available for purchase at vastly reduced prices.

Whatever make or model interests you, ring Tony Jackson, who will be happy to give you a quotation.

Hodsons is situated in the heart of Penkridge on the A449 through the village and apart from attracting business from a wide area, has something of a family following in the locality.

Beat Stress at Hodsons

Many people have trusted Hodsons over the years, buying from them and then selling back in favourable part exchange deals.

The staff come to know both the vehicle, through sales and service, and owners and can often tell you the history of a car without even having to refer to notes. It is a family business in every respect. We like to get to know our customers and assure them they can call in at any time to discuss their requirements with us.'

'We feel that our relationship with our customers - in many cases built up over a number of years - is important both to us and them,' said Mr Jackson.

AS IT'S ALWAYS BEEN

Hodsons at Stone Cross, which has been serving customers in the same way for more than 30 years

SOME 36 years after first setting up business, Hodsons remains a mainstay of the area. The company sticks to the same principles it did all those years ago, offering its wide customer base a varied choice when it comes to buying or selling – a new car.

The company is run very much as a family business, with two of its experienced staff having been colleagues at the Stone Cross dealership for more than two decades.

General manager Tony Jackson and sales manager Rob Caron have each worked together at Hodsons for 22 years.

It is partly because of their familiar faces, together with their knowledge and expertise, that customers keep coming back – and why the company attracts so many new customers, too.

Personal

Of course, their friendly service and tailor-made deals to suit all drivers are another reason behind Hodsons' success.

Times may have moved on, but Hodsons still offers the same personal and personable service it always did.

And the company has grown, too. Just 15 years ago, there were about 20 people employed by Hodsons. Now that has been extended to nearly double that.

For in addition to the main showroom, Hodsons has expanded to offer an MoT, service and repair centre at the Lyne Hill Lane industrial centre – giving its clientele that extra peace of mind – and proving that Hodsons is always to go that extra mile.

It's good to know that some things never change.

Tunnel vision can be a dangerous habit

Britain's top advanced driver Peter Rodger offers advice on driving in a tunnel

THE Hindhead tunnel, Britain's longest under-land tunnel, opened on the A3 at the end of July, heralding the start of vastly improved journeys on the main route between London and Portsmouth.

But tunnels can present problems for drivers. For example, vehicle fires in Europe's Mont Blanc and Gotthard tunnels have claimed 50 lives between them.

Many died because they wrongly believed they should wait in their vehicles for help, rather than getting out of the tunnel immediately.

Accidents in tunnels, no matter how short the tunnel is, present unique problems and knowing what to do is very important. The Institute of Advanced Motorists advice on driving in tunnels is:

Before entering a tunnel:

l Check your fuel gauge, don't risk running out of fuel.

l Turn on the traffic information channel. Some larger European road tunnels have their own radio as well as electronic signs.

l Take off your sunglasses.

In the tunnel:

l Turn on dipped headlights.

l Don't exceed the speed limit and leave extra room between yourself and the car in front.

l Keep an eye out for the location of emergency pedestrian exits just in case you may need one.

l In two-way tunnels, keep well to the nearside kerb.

l Do not change lanes unless instructed to.

If you break down:

l Switch on your hazard lights immediately.

l Try to coast to a breakdown lay-by.

l If none is available, stop as close to the nearside kerb as possible.

l Turn off the engine but leave the key in the ignition so the vehicle can be moved.

l Evacuate the vehicle making sure everyone is in a safe place – on the pedestrian walkway if there is one.

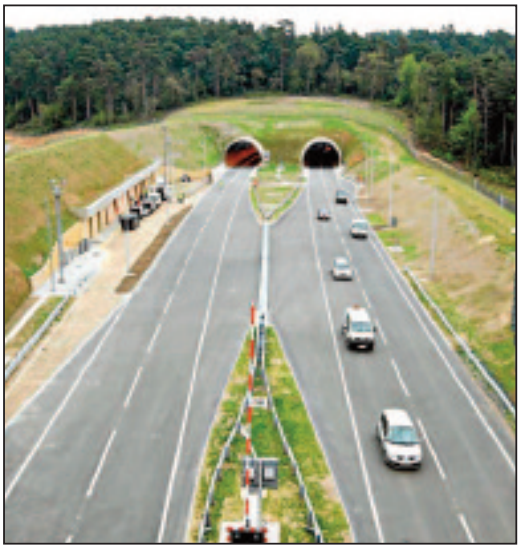
l Put on a reflective jacket, if you have one, and walk carefully to the nearest emergency phone and inform the operator.

In the event of a fire:

l Only try and extinguish the fire if someone is in danger.

l In all other cases leave as quickly as you can.

Rodger said: "Motorists heading for Europe this summer are likely to use a road tunnel. For example the longest tunnel in Europe is Norway's 15-mile Laerdal tunnel. Remember, if there is a fire or an accident, don't wait to act – fire and smoke can be fatal."



A view from the south side of the new Hindhead tunnel on the A3 in Surrey, which is 1.2 miles long

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite hilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

The winning team from Five Ways Primary School

Team plays off to win league

SPORTY youngsters at a Heath Hayes school are celebrating success on the soccer field.

The team from Five Ways Primary won the Cannock and District Primary School League overall title after taking part in a play-off decider against other winning teams.

The Langholm Drive school won their section of the league after triumphing in four and drawing two of their games.

Headteacher Michelle Walsh said they had gone on to win the recent tournament involving the champions of each league.

"Our team won the competition and are now overall winners of the Cannock and District League," she said. " Well done to all players who have attended training and matches over the season."

In the play-offs, they beat Whitgreave in the semi-final and then played St Joseph's in the final. After a close-run match, Five Ways won 4-3.

Top scorer, Ben Crutchley, aged 11, said: "I felt happy that we had won the league and that I had played such an important part."

The team scored 28 goals and only conceded seven in the league.

Val Bates, teaching assistant and team manager, added: "It was really pleasing to see the team achieve such a fantastic result."

Bowlers and skaters help to raise money for charity

WARM sunshine greeted more than 50 members for Hagley Bowls Club's annual Gala Day.

Attractions included a tombola, target bowls and golf and an extensive buffet tea. Money raised will help the Rugeley-based club further improve its green and other facilities. Members have also been raising money for charity with their friends at the Chase Inn.

A challenge match between the Chase and Hagley Bowls Club raised money for Help the Heroes.

Special mention to Martin Powell and Pete Gladwin of the Chase for defeating a pair of experienced Hagley bowlers.

This match will become an annual event and was organised as a thank you to Alan Lowe and his staff at the Chase Inn for hosting club members after league matches on a Tuesday and Thursday evening.

Thanks also to Martin Powell for donating a trophy. The £400 raised will add to the money the Chase Inn raises at its fun day from noon on August 13.

Activities at the Hagley Road pub will include a bouncy castle, fancy dress and face painting for children. There will be a display of vehicles, stalls such as tombola and a Play Your Cards Right and from 6pm a disco and race night.

YOUNG ice hockey star Aaron Jepson put his skating skills to good use to help raise nearly £400 for charity.

The 10-year-old, of Cheslyn Hay, took part in a charity skate-athon in aid of Birmingham Children's Hospital.

Dad Neil joined the youngster to complete the 10-mile skate in 52 minutes, before going on to reach more than 16 miles in 90-minutes. Aaron's Telford Venom team-mates were also involved.

Hundred up for Hassan as first XI bounce back

PENKRIDGE CRICKET CLUB

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (239-2) BEAT BEACON (236) BY EIGHT WICKETS

PENKRIDGE 1st XI bounced straight back from the previous week's upset by comprehensively beating Beacon by eight wickets at Pillaton.

Winning the toss, Penkridge asked the visitors to bat and Roger Weston (2-50) and Laeq Chishti (4-63) ensured it was an uncomfortable afternoon for the Beacon batsmen.

Beacon skipper Roger Fildes led the way opening the innings with a fluent 86, but other than Chris Townsend with a hard hit 50, there were precious few significant other contributions to the Beacon total of 236 all out.

Alex Watson departed early in reply, but thereafter, despite 65 from the consistent Saleem Malik, it was the Ronnie Hassan show. He struck 19 fours and three sixes in a superb 128 not out to lead Penkridge home in the 45th over, just two wickets down.

PENKRIDGE 2NDS (349-5) DREW WITH BEACON (176-6)

The second XI enjoyed a real run feast at Beacon, notching up an impressive 349-5 from their 50 overs, thanks chiefly to Kev Baker (92), Andy Lawson (53), and a sparkling century from Richard James, who hit 106 not out from just 68 deliveries.

The batting deck proved too good to be able to get among the Beacon line up and Penkridge were left frustrated as Beacon reached 176-6 from their 50 overs. Mohammed Shaffiq threatened a one-man show taking two wickets in two deliveries, but the game eventually petered out giving Penkridge a very convincing winning draw.

PENKRIDGE 3RDS (159-9) DREW WITH WEST BROMWICH DARTMOUTH (166-8)

The thirds slipped up against West Bromwich Dartmouth coming out on the wrong side of a draw. Batting first, WBD posted 166-8 from their 50 overs, with Amandeep Randhawa (45) and Gurdev Singh (52) the leading runmakers, while both Nadeem Tariq and Mohammed Ishfaq took three wickets.

Ishfaq (32) and Khalid Sadiq (43) threatened to challenge the WBD total at times, but ultimately Penkridge were left clinging on at the end, finishing on 159-9.

Cannock fighter Paul Taylor

'Relentless' has home advantage

CANNOCK'S Paul 'Relentless' Taylor will have home advantage in his next outing for the Ultimate Fighting Championship with UFC 138 set for Birmingham.

The lightweight has been added to the November 5 bill at the LG Arena, which will also see the UFC debut of Birmingham's Mixed Martial Artist Vaughan Lee.

Two-time world kickboxing champion Taylor, who trains at the 'Pure Mixed Martial Arts' gym in Progress Drive, Cannock, takes on Muay Thai fighter Anthony Njokuani.

Njokuani is a more experienced opponent and comes off the back of a victory against Andre Winner earlier this month.

The Nigerian-American has 15 UFC wins to Taylor's four but a step up in class is what the 30-year-old is looking for, after beating Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu black belt Gabe 'Godzilla' Ruediger by a stoppage last time out in February. Ruediger fell to a series of punches, rather than kicks, in the second round that night which complemented some much-improved wrestling ability, as the bright lights of Las Vegas spurred Taylor on.

But a home fight has raised the stakes to another level, insists Taylor.

Confident

He said: "I cannot wait to fight at UFC 138 in front of my home crowd. I never disappoint my fans whenever I step in the ring and fighting just miles away from my town is really exciting.

"My training is going well. "I feel very fit and am confident I'm going to give Anthony Njokuani, the toughest fight of his life and will walk out with the win."

Lee, a MMA fighter of 20 years, will be the home-town hero on the LG Arena show, having signed a deal this week to tackle an as yet unconfirmed opponent.

Kevin Phillips lines up with players from Cannock Town Blues under-10s

'Super Kev' joins up with Blues again

FORMER Birmingham, Aston Villa and West Brom striker Kevin Phillips lined up with a junior football team.

Cannock Town Blues under-10s were playing a series of friendly games against Great Wyrley AFC Cannock under the watchful eye of the 38-year-old ex-England forward, known as 'Super Kev'.

Phillips, who is now with Blackpool, agreed to pose with the lads, who will kick off their second campaign in the Lichfield & District Recreational League in September.

Cannock Town Blues u-10s are managed by Mark Atherton and his wife Beverley and play in Division 5 of the Lichfield League.

The club is sponsored by a stall based in Stafford indoor market called PhoneWorld which sells all things relating to mobile phones .

■ Chasetown FC Girls section are currently looking for players for a new under-11s team.

Girls in school years 5 and 6 are being sought. They need not have previous experience in a team.

HOCKEY

HATHERTON XI 9 CANNOCK XI 4

Cannock faced Hatherton at Chase Park on Thursday evening, aiming to put right a few wrongs of previous defeats.

They were also looking to bring a bit of pride back into the side after losing against their fellow Cannock side a few weeks ago.

The game started in completely the wrong way for Cannock as they found themselves 2-0 down in eight minutes after some poor defending and clinical finishing. However, a good response led to some poor play by Hatherton and Cannock clawed their way back to 2-2 thanks to goals from Tom Hyde and Richard Parker, the former scoring after some great work by Luke Dalton.

With the game now tight at 2-2 Cannock did what they have done all summer and stopped concentrating and soon found themselves behind again, leaving the half-time score at 4-2.

Another brief comeback seemed on the cards when Arjan Chana made it 4-3 but Hatherton then pulled away scoring numerous times leaving Lewis Jecketts to end the evening scoring Cannock's fourth goal, leaving the final result at 9-4. Cannock were hosting Sutton Royals on Monday evening in their final summer league game, still looking for their points of the summer.

Meanwhile Chase Park recorded a surprise victory with their best performance of the summer by far smashing Telford 7-1 at Chase Park, thanks to single strikes from Chris Beck and Karl Bayliss, a double from captain Darren Pugh and a hat-trick from Aaron Wilkes.

CANNOCK LADIES 'A' XI 0 TELFORD LADIES XI 4

Cannock Ladies slipped to a disappointing defeat at the hands of Telford where the experience of the opposition proved too much for the young Cannock side on Tuesday evening.

It gave Coach Alex Hill plenty to think about in preparation for the new season in six weeks time as the girls continue to play the right hockey but must play at a faster pace if they wish to break defences down on a more regular occasion.

However, with such a young and talented squad anything is possible with a lot of hard work and dedication.

ATHLETICS

Juniors retain premier status

THE Cannock & Stafford AC Junior League team travelled to Cardiff knowing they faced a battle to maintain their Premier Division status. At the end of a day in which the points swung one way then another, a fifth place finish was enough to relegate Charnwood and push Mansfield into the promotion/relegation match.

Alex Bradnick came 1st in the 200m (22.73) and 2nd in the 100m (11.33). Aaron Houseman won the 'B' 3000m race and Ella Gibbons the 'B' long jump with 5.30m.

Jess Leek came 2nd in the long jump with 5.32m and the women's 4x100m team of Natalie Ainge, Jess Leek, Ella Gibbons and Zoe Styles broke 50 seconds to finish just behind the Birchfield team (49.91)

Catherine Hulme came 2nd in the 1500m 'A' race and 800m 'B', both in pbs. Ashley Wickett ran 53.63 in the 400m and Sam Nicholls reduced his best 800m time to 2:04.56.

Tom Halloway smashed his 3000m time by 20 seconds and his 2000m steeplechase by 13. Tyler Brown-Jones increased both his shot and hammer distances and George Tyson beat his previous best javelin throw. Debutant Jack Bates finished 3rd in the 'B' steeplechase race.

Beth Clarke ran below 13 mins in the 3000m for the first time (12:49.2). She also ran pbs in the 100m hurdles and 400m hurdles and came 4th in the 'B steeplechase. Alicia Clarke threw 17.83m for a hammer best. Natalie Ainge ran season's best times for the 100m hurdles and 400m hurdles and Matthew Mayne ran his second fastest 400m time (50.81) to finish 3rd.

Alasdair Rigby was the top individual scorer with 27 points.

James Rayner, James Lake, James McCann, Jordan Barrett, Alex Pinner, Zoe Styles, Bethan Roberts, Teresa Hulme, Sarah Hulme and Lucy Heap all made valuable contributions to ensure their team will continue to compete at the top level next season.

Scholars, Mikes dish up a thriller

BOLDMERE ST MICHAELS 3 CHASETOWN 3

IT WAS more the weather for ball on willow, but Boldmere and Chasetown served up a six-goal feast, whilst the crowd topped up their tans.

The Scholars starting XI gave some of the pre-season "supporting cast" in the previous friendlies chance to take the main stage with Jimmy Turner and Gary Birch the only regulars from last season in the starting line up, although the bench did feature Gary Hay, Mark Branch, Dean Perrow and the fit again Ben Jevons.

Chasetown had the ball in the net after 14 minutes when Gary Birch headed home an Andy Westwood free-kick. The linesman's decision was a bizarre one, raising his flag for offside when it appeared a defensive line of three players were all playing the Chasetown number 9 on side.

It mattered not as Chasetown were ahead just four minutes later. A superb one-two between Theo Robinson and Adebayo Ajidahun opened up the Mikes defence, only for Robinson's shot to be blocked, with Ajidahun's follow up also blocked. The Mikes reprieve didn't last long, as the ball was only partially cleared to Malachi Farquharson who precisely placed a shot beyond Gibson from outside the area.

The lead was short-lived when Law equalised for the Midland Alliance side as quick as it took to update twitter and Charlie Blakemore.

Blakemore's side did regain the lead six minutes into the second half, though.

CHASETOWN FC

Lawrence Heward's left sided cross was too far for Gary Hay, but Ajidahun knocked the ball back across the six-yard box and Hay's low shot wrong-footed Mikes keeper Gibson.

The Mikes were straight back in the game and there was no disputing the penalty claims when Jack Stone handled. Law sent Mark Wiggins the wrong way with a neatly despatched spot kick.

The Scholars were quick to regain the lead for the third time. From kick off, Chasetown were on the offensive and forced a corner which Mark Branch teed up for Gary Hay who headed home relatively unmarked.

Mikes were full credit for their equalising goal – and, without question scored the goal of the game.

Joszef Jakab, who earlier had been deprived by a great save from Wiggins, burst into the penalty area and his shot was blocked by a last-ditch block from Ajidahun, but the ball flew loose to Staurt Capaldi who lashed an unstoppable effort past Wiggins.

A candidate for "goal of the season" if the campaign was under way. Capaldi's reward for his effort was to be immediately substituted, replaced by two-goal man Law, who had earlier been replaced by Jakab..

Wiggins ended the game the busier keeper, saving from Juxon just before the third Mikes equaliser, and then from Jakab in the last minute.

Thorley free-kick breaks Crane's resistance

HEDNESFORD TOWN 1 WORCESTER CITY 2

A SUPERB rearguard effort by Hednesford Town goalkeeper Dan Crane kept Conference South outfit Worcester at bay until an unstoppable free kick by Tom Thorley with two minutes to go settled the match.

Keys Park was the picture of mid-summer in balmy conditions as the Pitmen started the brighter in the opening period and opened the scoring on 13 minutes. Nick Wellecomme caught the Worcester defence square and passed sideways for Mark Danks to scuff the ball home.

The Pitmen had the better of the first half. Both Danks and Wellecomme each misconnected twice with shots when well placed. Cheyenne Dunkley did well to cover as Danny Edwards tiptoed around Crane on the half hour mark but a missed header by the usually dependable defender and a mix up with Chris Shaw let in Mike Symons to lash in an equaliser for the away side on 36 minutes.

It was The Loyals who looked most dangerous in the second half as Crane twice foiled ex-Pitman striker Luke Corbett from close range with superb reaction blocks on 64 and 77 minutes respectively.

Larry Chambers used the final half hour to look at trialists including Pedro Monteiro and Josh Macauley as well as give further playing time to Elliott Durrell and the ever lively Danny Quinn as his squad prepared for the big kick off on August 13.

A strong run and shot from Jamey Osborne came close to winning the game for Hednesford but substitute Chris Clements was penalised for a debatable foul and Thorley stepped up to curl the free kick left footed into the corner to finally break Crane's stout resistance.

Hednesford travel to Truro on Saturday (3pm) for the Southern League Championship, before the big kick-off at Bradford Park Avenue a week later.

Sub keeper Wiggins fleeced by effort from Lamb player

CHASETOWN 0 TAMWORTH 1

IN Charlie Blakemore's absence, Andy Cox rang the changes during the night, utilising a 20-man squad and giving plenty of reserve players a chance to prove they deserve a chance at the first team squad.

In fact, several of the fringe-men acquitted themselves very well in the second half and looked like they may be knocking on the door of the squad in the future.

The game was not as fast-flowing as the Aston Villa game two days previously, but nonetheless, The Scholars put in a good performance to keep The Lambs at bay.

Tamworth challenged on 26 minutes when Liam McDonald's tame free-kick was easily claimed by Ryan Price, and then a minute later, Chasetown went close when a Lee Parsons shot was blocked by a visiting defender, flinging himself in front of the effort.

Price was called into action again, to keep out a low shot from Danny Thomas, and on the stroke of half-time, Harry Milton's diving header flashed wide of the post.

Mark Wiggins replaced Ryan Price in goal and was beaten within two minutes of his introduction when a fluked cross from Liam McDonald flew beyond the young keeper. Neat inter-passing from the visitors just after the hour mark, resulted in McDonald firing low towards the corner of the net, only for Wiggins to superbly kick the attempt away.

With only perhaps three recognised first teamers on the pitch for the majority of the second half, the Scholars created a number of chances. With fifteen minutes left youngster Adebayo Ajidahun clear drove over.

And in a strong finish Jake Sedgemore's free-kick was charged down by Andrew, who also produced a save from Theo Robinson.

ALL WHITE ON THE NIGHT AT FREE GAME KIT LAUNCH

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

HEDNESFORD TOWN 2 WARRINGTON 1

MORE than 600 fans took advantage of free admission as the Pitmen launched their new all-white strip at this friendly game.

Evo-Stik Division 1 North side Warrington Town were worthy opponents on the day.They came back strongly at 2-1 down in the second half and, but for an offside decision, could have equalised at the death.

Mark Danks had put Hednesford ahead early on before Sam Finlay capitalised on defensive indecision to round Dan Crane and equalise midway through the first half.

Substitute Nick Wellecomme scored the winning goal when he was put through by Elliott Durrell and lobbed the advancing keeper with 11 minutes to go.

Following the match, club secretary, Terry McMahon spoke of his delight at watching the players don the new kit for the first time – and welcomed the number of fans who had ventured to Keys Park on such a gorgeous July day.

"It was great to see the lads in the new shirt and the day was a real success," he said. "I would like to thank Terry and Heather Schofield of kit suppliers MJM Sports Ltd for making a long journey from Devon to support the Joma kit launch.

Their support and on-time delivery ensured the day ran smoothly.'

Many fans were left disappointed that, due to high demand, they were unable to buy their shirts in the correct size. McMahon reassured them that new stock would be delivered within the next week.

The online ordering service at www.hednesfordfc.co.uk is fully functional and the full range of Pitmen sportswear stock is available.

Meanwhile, the Supporters Association have confirmed the running times of their Meet The Manager night next Thursday (August 11). The regular SA Meeting will take place for members from 7.15pm in the Sponsors Lounge. Pre-meeting drinks will start at 7.45pm in the Chase Room, raffle tickets will be on sale with two months free gym membership at Nuffield Health Centre in Hednesford and a new shirt signed by the current first team squad among the prizes.

Hednesford Town unveiled their new all-white strip in last Saturday's friendly against Warrington. Modelling the kit are Danny Quinn and captain Darren Campion, while Emma Smith wears the new away colours

Hayes kick off league campaign

HEATH HAYES FC

HEATH Hayes begin their 2011/12 campaign this Saturday (August 6) with a home Midland Football Alliance fixture against Coventry Sphinx. Kick off is at 3pm.

Next Tuesday. August 9, they travel to newly promoted Heather St John for a 7.35pm kick off, followed on Saturday (13) with the visit of another of the league's newcomers, Atherstone Town. Kick off at Newlands Lane is 3pm.

Hayes performed well in their pre season warm up games, losing narrowly to full strength Hednesford Town and Rushall Olympic teams followed by 6-1 victories over both Chasetown and Wolverhampton Casuals.

They were beaten 3-1 by Brocton, but in their final warm up game last Saturday they got back to winning ways with a solid 4-1 win at West Midland Premier league side Bustleholme.
